See 1 Stra. 249. and 5 Bur. 2602.

WHEREAS there hath been Time out of Mind, and now is, a very useful and well regulated Society or Fellowship, of Pilots of the Trinity House of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, who have always had the sole Piloting and Load-manage of all Ships and Vessels from the said Place up the Rivers of Thames and Medway: And whereas by the Usage and good Rules and Orders of the said Society every Person must appear at a Court of Load-manage, and be publicly examined by some of the elder and more experienced Members of the said Society and Fellowship, touching the Skill and Abilities in Pilotage, before he is to be admitted a Member of the said Society or Fellowship, or ought to undertake the conducting and piloting any Ship or Vessel from the before-mentioned Places up the said Rivers, whereby ignorant and dangerous Persons have been prevented from undertaking such Pilotage; and there hath been from Time to Time a sufficient Number of safe and able Pilots for the said Rivers maintained and kept up: And whereas notwithstanding the many and great Advantages of the said Society or Fellowship to the Public, several unqualified Persons have of late taken upon them the piloting and conducting Ships and Vessels by and from the Places before-mentioned up the said Rivers of Thames and Medway, who have not been admitted into the said Society or Fellowship, or undergone any Examination of their Abilities for such Service, whereby the said useful Society or Fellowship hath been discouraged, and several Ships and Vessels, with their Cargo and Mariners, have been lost or in the utmost Danger and Hazard: For Remedy whereof, be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the First Day of August One thousand seven hundred and seventeen, take upon him or themselves to conduct or pilot any Ship or Vessel by or from Dover, Deal or the Isle of Thanet, to any Place or Places in or upon the said Rivers of Thames and Medway, before he or they shall be first examined, as has been usual, by the Master and Wardens of the said Society or Fellowship for the Time being, touching his or their Abilities, and shall be approved and admitted into the said Society or Fellowship at a Court of Load-manage by the Lord Warden of the Cinque-ports for the Time being or his Deputy, and the said Master and Wardens for the Time being, every such Person or Persons shall for the first Offence forfeit Ten Pounds, for the second Twenty Pounds, and for every other Offence Forty Pounds, to be sued for and recovered with full Costs of Suit, by any Person or Persons, by Suit or Action to be brought in the Court of Admiralty for the Cinque-ports, in case such Offender shall live and be found within the Jurisdiction of the said Court, or else by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Privilege, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, and

No Person shall pilot any Ship from Dover, &c. unless examined by Trinity House and admitted into that Society. First Offence 10l. second 20l. and every other 40l.

and no more than One Imparlance; which said Sum or Sums of Money, so to be forfeited and recovered, shall go and be as to one Moiety thereof, to the Informer, and as to the other Moiety thereof, to be paid to and received by the Master and Wardens of the said Society for the Time being, to be by them distributed to and amongst such superannuated Pilots, and the Widows of Pilots of the said Society, in like Manner and Proportion as the said Master and Wardens for the Time being shall think fit and appoint, and as heretofore hath been used and practised by the said Society.

How the Penalty shall be recovered and disposed of.

II. Provided always, That this Act shall not extend to prevent or hinder the Master or Mate of any Ship or Vessel, or Part Owner residing at Dover, Deal, or the Isle of Thanet, from conducting or piloting his own Ship or Vessel from any of the Places aforesaid up the said Rivers; nor subject any Person or Persons (though not of the said Society or Fellowship) to the Penalties aforesaid, who shall be hired by any Master to conduct or pilot his Ship or Vessel from the said Places, provided no One of the said Society or Fellowship shall, within the Space of One Hour after such Ship or Vessel shall arrive at any of the said Places, be ready to conduct and pilot the same.

Masters residing at Dover, &c. may pilot their own Ships if none of the Society be ready.

III. Provided always, That all Masters of Merchant Ships shall have Liberty to make Choice of such Pilot of the said Society or Fellowship as he shall think fit; and that no Person shall continue in the said Society or Fellowship, who shall not conduct or pilot a Ship at least twice in any One Year (unless prevented by Sickness) to and from the Places above-mentioned.

IV. And for preventing any exorbitant Demands from any Pilot or Pilots of the said Society for the conducting and piloting any Ships or Vessels from Dover, Deal or the Isle of Thanet, to any Places in or upon the said Rivers of Thames and Medway, That the following and no greater or other Prices shall be taken or demanded than what is or are herein-after mentioned, viz. For every Ship or Vessel drawing Seven Foot Water, the Sum of Three Pounds Ten Shillings: For every Ship or Vessel drawing Eight Foot Water the Sum of Four Pounds: For every Ship or Vessel drawing Nine Foot Water, the Sum of Four Pounds Ten Shillings: For every Ship or Vessel drawing Ten Foot Water, the Sum of Five Pounds: For every Ship or Vessel drawing Eleven Foot Water, the Sum of Five Pounds Ten Shillings: For every Ship or Vessel drawing Twelve Foot Water, the Sum of Six Pounds: For every Ship or Vessel drawing Thirteen Foot Water, the Sum of Six Pounds Ten Shillings: For every Ship or Vessel drawing Fourteen Foot Water, the Sum of Seven Pounds: For every Ship or Vessel drawing Fifteen Foot Water, the Sum of Seven Pounds Ten Shillings: For every Ship or Vessel drawing Sixteen Foot Water, the Sum of Eight Pounds: and for every Ship or Vessel drawing Seventeen Foot Water, the Sum of Eight Pounds Ten Shillings: and no Allowance to be made for odd Inches.

Pilot losing a Ship, incapacitated.

To be 120 in Number, and their Names, &c. to be affixed, &c.

5 GEORGII I. Cap. XI.

An Act against clandestine Running of uncustomed Goods, and for the more effectual preventing of Frauds relating to the Customs.

AND whereas Rum is now imported in much greater Proportions than formerly; and whereas the importing thereof in small Casks or Vessels is many Times done with Design that the same may more easily, privately and clandestinely be carried off and conveyed without paying the Duties; for Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if after the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, any Rum shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven, or Creek thereof, in any Cask or Vessel, not containing Twenty Gallons at the least (excepting only for the Use of the Seamen, then belonging to and on board such Ship or Vessel) all such Rum, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited; nevertheless, if it shall be made appear, to the Satisfaction of the principal Officers of the Customs at the Port of Importation, that such Rum so imported in small Casks, was for the Use of the Master or Seamen belonging to the Ship or Vessel in the Voyage, or imported by Merchants or Traders, without Fraud or Concealment, that then and in every such Case the said Officers are hereby impowered and directed to admit such Rum to an Entry, and cause the Duties thereof to be accepted, instead of the Forfeiture thereof before-mentioned; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Rum imported in Casks under 20 Gallons forfeited.
For the Continuance of this Clause, see 9 Geo. 1. c. 8. sect. 8. & 2 Geo. 2. c. 28. sect. 3. 2 Geo. 2. c. 35.
Unless such Rum were for the Use of the Master, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Foreign Goods, Wares or Merchandizes, shall after the Five and twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, by any Collier, Fisher-boat, or other coasting Vessel or Boat, be taken in at Sea, or out of any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, in order to be landed or put into any other Ship, Vessel or Boat, within the Limits of any Port, without Payment of the Customs and other Duties due and payable for the same, such Goods, Wares and Merchandizes shall be forfeited, and the Master of such Collier, Fisher-boat, or other coasting Vessel or Boat, shall forfeit Treble the Value of such Goods unless in case of Necessity, which such Master shall immediately give Notice of, and make Proof before the Chief Officers of the Customs of the first Port of this Kingdom where he shall arrive; and the Master, Purser, or other Person taking Charge of the Ship or Vessel, out of which such Goods shall be taken in at Sea, unless in case of Necessity as aforesaid, shall forfeit Treble the Value of such Goods so unshipt; one Moiety of which Forfeiture to be for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him, her, or them who will inform or sue for the same, and shall and may be recovered in like Manner as is herein-after mentioned.

Foreign Goods taken in at Sea by any Collier, &c. to be landed or put on board any other Vessel without Payment of the Duties, forfeited.

For the Continuance of this Clause, see 9 Geo. 1. c. 8. sect. 8. & 2 Geo. 2. c. 28. sect. 3.

IV. And whereas in Ships from Foreign Parts, Goods are often found at clearing such Ships concealed in false Bulk-heads between the Linings and false Knees, or in concealed Lockers, in order to their being landed without Payment of Duties, so that 'tis almost impossible for Officers of the Cuſtoms to discover them without having some previous Information; for Prevention of which fraudulent Practices, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, all Goods not reported, and found after the clearing the Ship by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, shall be liable to Forfeiture, and such Goods shall and may be seized and prosecuted in the Manner herein-after mentioned; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

10 Ann. c. 26.

V. And whereas by an Act made in the Tenth Year of the late Queen's Reign, for laying additional Duties on Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, and new Duties on Starch, Coffee, Tea, Drugs, and other Things, Certificates for the Discharge of Bonds given at the Custom House upon the Exportation of Coffee or Tea, that the same shall not be relanded in any Part of Great Britain, are to be under the Common Seal of the Chief Magistrate in such Place or Places in Parts beyond the Seas, or under the Hands and Seals of Two known British Merchants then being at such Place or Places, that such Coffee, Tea or Drugs was there landed; which Provision is found insufficient for the Security of the Revenue of Customs against any secret relanding such Coffee, Tea or Drugs, in some Part of this Kingdom: And in regard a better Provision may be made with respect to such Goods exported to Ireland, as is made in the Case of Tobacco, by an Act made in the Eighth Year of Her said late Majesty's Reign, be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the First Day of May One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, no such Bond given for the Exportation of Coffee, Tea, or other Certificate Goods exported to Ireland, shall be delivered up, or any Drawback allowed for any Goods entitled thereto, until a Certificate shall be produced under the Hands and Seals of the Collector, Controller and Surveyor of the Customs of some Port in Ireland, or any Two of them, where such Goods shall be landed, testifying the landing thereof; and for the future the Condition of all such Bonds, required by Law to be given for the Exportation of any of the said Goods to Ireland, shall be, to produce such Certificate in Six Months from the Date thereof (the Danger of the Seas and Enemies excepted) and in case no such Certificate shall be produced within the said Time of Six Months, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively to cause such Bonds to be put in Suit, unless they shall find sufficient Cause to forbear the same; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

8 Ann. c. 13.
No Bond for Exportation of Certificate Goods to Ireland to be delivered up, or any Drawback allowed, till Certificate from the Collector, &c. where the Goods were landed, &c.
For the Continuance of this Clause, see 9 Geo. 1. c. 8. sect. 8. & 2 Geo. 2. c. 28. sect. 3.

Goods prohibited to be worn here, and foreign Goods relanded, forfeited.
For the continuance of this Clause, see 9 Geo. 1. c. 8 sect. 8 & 2 Geo. 2. c. 28. sect. 3.

VI. And whereas the Remedies already provided by Law, to prevent the relanding Goods prohibited to be worn in this Kingdom, and foreign Goods shipped out for Parts beyond the Seas, have not been sufficient to put a Stop to the fraudulent relanding such Goods, to the Prejudice of the Revenue and the fair Traders; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, if any such Goods shall be unshipped, or put on Shore (unless in case of Distress to save the Ship from perishing, or in the Presence of an Officer of the Customs) the said Goods shall be forfeited; and if the Master, Purser, or other Person, taking care of any Ship wherein the said Goods shall be laden, shall suffer or permit any of the said Goods to be landed or unshipped (unless as aforesaid) the said Master, Purser, or other Person, taking care of such Ship, shall forfeit the Value of such Goods so unshipped or landed; and the Person or Persons to whose Hands or Possession the said Goods shall come, after the unshipping or landing thereof, he or they knowing the same to be so unshipped, shall forfeit Double the Value of the said Goods, unless he or they shall make Discovery thereof to the principal Officers of the Customs in Six Days after the said Goods shall so come to his or their Hands; provided the said Goods shall not have been seized by, or Information given thereof, to any Officer of the Customs before such Discovery.

Penalty on Maſters &c. permitting the package of such Goods to be opened on board without leave.

For the Continuance of this Clause see 9 Geo. 1. c. 8 §. 8. & 2 Geo. 2. c. 28. §. 3.

VII. And whereas the Persons concerned in carrying on the said fraudulent Practices do frequently cause the Package of such Goods to be opened on board the Ship, during the Time she continues in Port, whereby they have a better Opportunity to reland the said Goods: for the Prevention whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Package of any such Goods shall, with the Privity or Consent of the Master, Purser, or other Persons taking care of such Ship or Vessel, be opened on board any Ship or Vessel, or put into other Form or Package, during the Time the said Ship or Vessel remains in Port, without Leave of One or more of the principal Officers of the Port, the said Master, Purser, or other Person taking care of such Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit One hundred Pounds; and if the said Master, Purser or other Person, taking care of such Ship or Vessel, shall permit or suffer any of the said Goods to be unshipped or landed, or the Package of any such Goods to be opened, or put into any other Form, without Leave, as aforesaid, then such Master, Purser, or other Person, shall also suffer Six Months Imprisonment, without Bail or Mainprize.

X. And whereas altering the Package of Coffee for Exportation hath been found to be prejudicial to His Majesty's Customs: be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, no Coffee shall be exported but such only as shall be contained in the original Bale or Package, or in some Bale or Package containing the same Quantity therein, or in some Bale or Package containing not less than Four hundred Weight, and the same Marks and Numbers thereon with which it was first entered at His Majesty's Custom House; excepting only such Coffee as shall be exported to His Majesty's Plantations, or Ireland.

Coffee to be exported in the original Bale, or in some Bale containing the same Quantity, or not less than 400lb. &c.

For the Continuance of this Clause see 9 Geo. 1. c. 8. §. 8. & 2 Geo. 2. c. 28. §. 3.

[Section Twelve printed in the Body of the Work.]

XIII. And whereas an Act was made in the Twelfth Year of the late Queen, intituled, An Act for the preserving all such Ships and Goods thereof, which shall happen to be forced on Shore, or stranded upon the Coasts of this Kingdom, or any other of Her Majesty's Dominions; wherein is recited (amongst other Things) that many Ships of Trade, after all their Dangers at Sea escaped, have unfortunately near Home run on Shore or been stranded on the Coasts thereof, and been barbarously plundered by His Majesty's Subjects, and their Cargoes imbezilled; and when any Part has been saved, it has been swallowed up by the exorbitant Demands for Salvage, to the great Loss of His Majesty's Revenue and Damage of His Majesty's trading Subjects; and therefore it is by the said Act (among other Things) enacted, That such Ships, Vessels, or Goods so to be saved, as therein is mentioned, shall remain in the Custody of the Officer of the Customs or his Deputy for the Purposes of the said Act; and if such Goods shall not be legally claimed by the rightful Owner within the Time therein limited, that then public Sale shall be made thereof (and if perishable Goods, forthwith to be sold) and after all Charges deducted, the Residue of the Monies arising by such Sale, with a fair and just Account of the whole, shall be transmitted to his Majesty's Exchequer, there to remain for the Benefit of the Owner; which Act was made perpetual by another Act of the Fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign made in that Behalf:

4 Geo. 1. c. 11.

Goods saved out of any stranded Ship, after Salvage and Charges paid, liable to Customs, &c.

half: And whereas from the Want of express Words whereby to subject stranded Goods so saved to the Payment of Customs and other Duties, a Doubt has arisen, whether such Goods are liable to pay the same, to the great Loss of His Majesty's Revenue and contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Acts; be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all Goods, Wares and Merchandizes, which from and after the Five and twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, shall be salved out of any Ship or Vessel that shall happen to be forced on Shore or stranded upon the Coasts of this Kingdom (not being wrecked Goods, or Jetsham, Flotsham, or Lagan) shall, after Charges of Salvage and other Charges paid as aforesaid, be subject and liable to the Payments of the like Customs and other Duties, with such Drawbacks upon Exportation, and the like Allowances and Abatements, as such Goods, Wares or Merchandizes would, by any Law or Laws now in Force, be liable unto and entitled to have in case the same were regularly imported; any Thing in the aforesaid Acts or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

After 1 May 1719, printed Silks, Callicoes, &c. unmarked, forfeited.

Penalty on Possessor.

XV. And whereas great Quantities of Silks, Callicoes, Linens or Stuffs, printed, painted, stained or dyed, in Great Britain, are exposed to Sale without having a Mark or Stamp to denote the Payment of the Duties: And whereas such as have been so marked or stamped are frequently shipped off in order to be exported into Parts beyond the Seas, whereby the Person or Persons exporting the said Goods are entitled to a great Drawback; and it hath been found by Experience, that great Quantities of such Goods after they have been shipped for Exportation, have been privately relanded in this Realm; and the Remedies already provided by Law have not been sufficient to obviate a Practice so prejudicial to His Majesty and all fair and honest Traders in such Goods: be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the First Day of May One thousand seven hundred and nineteen, during the Continuance of the said Duties, in case any Silks, Callicoes, Linens or Stuffs printed, painted, stained, or dyed, in Great Britain, shall be found in any Place whatsoever, on Land or Water, without being marked or sealed with a Stamp or Seal, denoting, that the Duties have been duly paid or charged (except on Board such Ships or Vessels on which such Goods have been shipped for Exportation) the same shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Customs or Excise; and the Person or Persons in whose Custody or Possession the Goods so seized shall be found, shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds; One Moiety of which Forfeitures and Penalties shall be to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall seize, inform or sue for the same in His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, wherein no Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed: Provided always, that the Goods so recovered shall not be delivered out of the Custom House Warehouse, until the same shall be marked or sealed with a proper Mark or Stamp, to be provided by the Commissioners of the Customs for that Purpose; and they are hereby directed and authorized to provide the same, and to cause the said Goods to be stamped therewith accordingly; any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Roasters of Coffee making Use of Water, Grease, Butter, &c. to forfeit 20l.

XXIII. Proof of Goods claimed to be made within Ten Days, or they may be seized and prosecuted. Proof to lie on the Claimant. Manner of Claim and Proceeding, with Place of Trial if contested."

XLV. And whereas by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for continuing Duties upon Low Wines, and upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices, and Pictures, and upon Hawkers, Pedlars, and petty Chapmen, and upon Muslins; and for granting new Duties upon several of the said Commodities, and also upon Calico, China Ware and Drugs, it is enacted, That any Person or Persons may import into this Kingdom, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace and Tea, subject to the several Duties payable for the same, from any Parts beyond the Seas, in British Ships, navigated as therein mentioned, and so as Notice be first given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs of the Quantity and Quality of the said Spices and Tea so intended to be imported, and the Place to which they intend to import the same, and taking a Licence under the Hands of the said Commissioners for the Time being for the landing and importing thereof as aforesaid: And whereas by an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to Her Majesty new Duties of Excise, and upon several imported Commodities, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, it is enacted, That Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves and Mace, may be imported into Great Britain, subject to the several Duties payable for the same, from any Parts beyond the Seas, in British Ships, navigated as therein mentioned, the Importer thereof first giving Notice to the said Commissioners of the Quantity and Quality of the said Spices, and the Place into which he intends to import the same, and taking a Licence under the Hands of the said Commissioners for the importing thereof, which Importation is to be continued during the Continuance of the said respective Acts, which are still in force;

WHEREAS in and by an Act made and passed in the Fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, several Penalties were inflicted on Officers of the Revenue, and others concerned in making collusive Seizures of Foreign Goods, and for giving Rewards to Persons discovering the same; notwithstanding which such Practices are still carried on to the Diminution of His Majesty's Revenues and the Detriment of the fair Traders: For the better preventing whereof, with respect to Tea, Coffee, Foreign Brandy, Rum, or other Foreign exciseable Liquors, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord One thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Commissioners of the Customs, Excise, and Inland Duties, to cause all such Goods which shall be seized by any Officers of the Customs or Excise, and Inland Duties or others, for unlawful Importation, or for Non-payment of Duties, or for any other Cause of Forfeiture, to be proceeded against according to the several Laws now in force concerning the same; and the said respective Commissioners may cause all such Tea and Coffee, which shall be seized within the Limits of the City of London or Edinburgh, and condemned, to be publickly sold there respectively; and for such Tea and Coffee as shall be seized in any other Ports or Places within this Kingdom, the said Commissioners may cause the same after Condemnation, to be brought to and publickly sold in the said Cities of London or Edinburgh respectively; and for all such Foreign Brandy, Rum, or other Foreign exciseable Liquors, which shall be seized for Non-payment of Duty, or for being prohibited to be imported, the said respective Commissioners shall, after Condemnation, cause the same to be publickly sold to the best Bidder, at such Places as the said Commissioners shall think proper; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

XVII. And for the better preventing Frauds in the entering for Exportation any Goods, whereon there is a Drawback, Bounty, or Præmium, or of Goods prohibited to be worn or used here, or Pepper, to the Prejudice of the Revenue; be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Searcher, or other proper Officer of the Customs, after the Entry of any of the said Goods, and before or after the Shipping thereof, to open and strictly examine any Bale, Truss, Chest, or other Package, to see if the Goods are right entered; and if on such Examination the same shall be found to be right entered, the Searcher or other proper Officer shall, at his own Charge, cause the same to be repacked (which Charge shall be allowed to the said Officer by the Commissioners of the Customs, if they think it reasonable) but in case the Officer shall on Examination find such Goods to be less in Quantity or Value than is expressed in the Exporter's Indorsement upon his Entry, or that shall be entred under a wrong Denomination, whereby His Majesty would have been defrauded, all such Goods may be seized, and the same shall be forfeited and lost, and the Owner or Merchant shall lose the Benefit of receiving the Drawback or Bounty for such Goods, and the Value thereof.

An Act for the Free Importation of Cochineal, during the Time therein limited.

WHEREAS Cochineal of the Growth of the Spanish West Indies, is of principal Use in dying Cloth, and other the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom of Scarlet, Purple, and other Colours called Grain Colours, to the great Improvement thereof, by which great Numbers of His Majesty's Subjects are employed in finishing and perfecting such Woollen Manufactures: And whereas such Cochineal by the Laws in being, cannot be imported but from Spain, or the Places of its Growth, and British Ships are not at present admitted into the Ports of Spain, and the Territories thereunto belonging, so that this Kingdom is not likely to be furnished with a sufficient Quantity of Cochineal for the necessary Service thereof, unless some Provision be made for the free importing of the same, during the Interruption of the Commerce with Spain, whereby great Quantities of Cloths, and other Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom, are like to remain White in the Makers and Merchants Hands, for want of Cochineal to dye the same into Grain Colours for Exportation: And whereas in several Parts of Europe Cochineal is now sold at much cheaper Rates than in this Kingdom, and it is now used abroad in dying Foreign Manufactures, at lower Prices than His Majesty's Subjects can dye the Manufactures of this Kingdom therewith, to the great Encouragement of Foreign Woollen Manufactures, the great Prejudice of the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom, and Impoverishment of many of His Majesty's Subjects employed therein: For Remedy whereof, be it enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twentieth Day of May One thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, during the Space of Six Months, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to import and bring Cochineal into this Kingdom, in any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels belonging to Great Britain, or to any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, from any Port or Place whatsoever; any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

An Act to settle how far Owners of Ships ſhall be answerable for the Acts of the Masters or Mariners.

WHEREAS it is of the greatest Consequence and Importance to this Kingdom, to promote the Increase of the Number of Ships and Vessels, and to prevent any Discouragement to Merchants and others from being interested and concerned therein: And whereas it has been held, That in many Cases, Owners of Ships or Vessels are answerable for Goods and Merchandize shipped or put on board the same, although the said Goods and Merchandize, after the same have been so put on board, should be made away with by the Masters or Mariners of the said Ships or Vessels, without the Knowledge or Privity of the Owner or Owners, by means whereof Merchants and others are greatly discouraged from adventuring their Fortunes, as Owners of Ships or Vessels; which will necessarily tend to the Prejudice of the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom: Therefore, for ascertaining and settling how far Owners of Ships and Vessels shall be answerable for any Gold, Silver, Diamonds, Jewels, precious Stones, or other Goods or Merchandizes, which shall be made away with by the Masters or Mariners, without the Privity of the Owners thereof; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Person or Persons, who is, are, or shall be Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel, shall be subject or liable to answer for, or make good, to any One or more Person or Persons, any Loss or Damage by reason of any Imbezzlement, secreting, or making away with (by the Master or Mariners, or any of them) of any Gold, Silver, Diamonds, Jewels, precious Stones, or other Goods or Merchandize, which, from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June, which shall be in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and thirty-four, shall be shipped, taken in, or put on board any Ship or Vessel, or for any Act, Matter, or Thing, Damage, or Forfeiture, done, occasioned, or incurred, from and after the said Twenty-fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and thirty-four, by the said Master or Mariners, or any of them, without the Privity and Knowledge of such Owner or Owners, further than the Value of the Ship or Vessel, with all her Appurtenances, and the full Amount of the Freight due or to grow due for and during the Voyage, wherein such Embezzlement, secreting, or making away away with, as aforesaid, or other Malversation of the Master or Mariners, shall be made, committed, or done; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Owners of Ships liable only to forfeit Value of Ship and Freight, for Embeazlements committed without their Knowledge.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if several Freighters or Proprietors of any such Gold, Silver, Diamonds, Jewels, Precious Stones, or other Goods or Merchandize shall suffer any Loss or Damage by any of the Means aforesaid in the same Voyage, and the Value of the Ship or Vessel with all her Appertenances, and the Amount of the Freight due or to grow due during such Voyage, shall not be sufficient to make full Compensation to all and every of them, then such Freighters or Proprietors shall receive their Satisfaction thereout in Average, in Proportion to their respective Losses or Damages: And in every such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Freighters or Proprietors, or any of them, on behalf of himself, and all other such Freighters or Proprietors, or to and for the Owners of such Ship or Vessel, or any of them, on behalf of himself and all the other Part-Owners of such Ship or Vessel, to exhibit a Bill in any Court of Equity for a Discovery of the total Amount of such Losses or Damages, and also of the Value of such Ship or Vessel, Appurtenances, and Freight, and for an equal Distribution and Payment thereof amongst such Freighters or Proprietors, in Proportion to their respective Losses or Damages, according to the Rules of Equity.

If several Proprietors suffer by Imbezzlement, and Value of Ship, &c. be not sufficient to compensate the Loss, their Proportions to be determined by Average; and the Freighters or Owners may exhibit a Bill for discovering Amount of such Losses, &c.

III. Provided always, That if any such Bill shall be exhibited by or on the Behalf of the Part-Owners of such Ship, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall annex an Affidavit to such Bill or Bills, that he or they do not collude with any of the Defendants thereto, and shall thereby offer to pay the Value of such Ship or Vessel, Appurtenances and Freight, as such Court shall direct; and such Court shall thereupon take such Method for ascertaining such Value, as to them shall seem just, and shall direct the Payment thereof in like Manner as is now used and practised in cases of Bills of Interpleader.

Part Owners exhibiting such Bill, to annex an Affidavit, that they do not collude with Defendants.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That nothing in this present Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to impeach, lessen, or discharge any Remedy, which any Person or Persons now hath, or shall or may hereafter have, against all, every, or any the Master and Mariners of such Ship or Vessel, for or in respect of any Imbezzlement, secreting, or making away with any Gold, Silver, Diamonds, Jewels, precious Stones, or Merchandize, shipped, or loaded on board such Ship or Vessel, or on Account of any Fraud, Abuse, or Maleversation, of and in such Master and Mariners respectively; but that it shall and may be lawful to and for every Person or Persons, so injured or damaged, to pursue and take such Remedy for the same, against the said Master and Mariners respectively, as he or they might have done before the making of this Act.

WHEREAS Cochineal and Indico are of principal Use in dying of Cloths, and other Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom, to the great Improvement thereof, by which great Numbers of His Majesty's Subjects are employed in finishing and perfecting such Manufactures, and the Importation thereof ought therefore to be encouraged in the most extensive Manner, that the Dyers may at all Times be supplied with Cochineal and Indico on the cheapest Terms possible: And whereas the said Commodities cannot at present be imported into this Kingdom, but according to the Rules prescribed and enjoined by an Act of Parliament passed in the Twelfth Year of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and encreasing of Shipping and Navigation, which hath been found inconvenient, tending to make them dearer in these Kingdoms than they would be, if they could be freely imported from any Place where they may be purchased cheapest: And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirteenth Year of His late Majesty King George, intituled, An Act for the free Importation of Cochineal, during the Time therein mentioned; Liberty was therein granted for the free Importation of Cochineal, during the Continuance of the said Act, which is now expired: May it therefore please your most Excellent Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said last mentioned Act of the Thirteenth of His late Majesty King George, shall, from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and thirty-four, be revived, and is hereby revived, and shall remain in full Force and Virtue.

An Act to amend an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act to preserve and encourage the Woollen and Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for more effectually employing the Poor, by prohibiting the Use and Wear of all printed, painted, stained or dyed Callicoes, in Apparel, Household Stuff, Furniture or otherwise, after the Twenty-fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty-two (except as is therein excepted) so far as relates to Goods made of Linen Yarn, and Cotton Wool, manufactured in Great Britain.

7 G. 1. c. 7.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act to preserve and encourage the Woollen and Silk Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for more effectual employing the Poor, by prohibiting the Use and Wear of all printed, painted, stained, or dyed Callicoes, in Apparel, Household Stuff, Furniture or otherwise, after the Twenty-fifth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and twenty-two (except as is therein excepted) it is enacted, That the Prohibition of Callicoes intended by the said Act, and the Penalties thereby inflicted, for wearing or using printed, painted, stained, or dyed Callicoes, in Apparel, Household Stuff, or Furniture, after the Twenty-fifth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, contrary to the said Act, should respectively extend to prohibit, and should be levied and recovered for wearing or using in Apparel, Household Stuff, or Furniture, after the said Twenty-fifth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, any Stuff made with Cotton, or mixed therewith, which should be printed or painted with any Colour or Colours, or any Callicoe chequered or striped, or any Callicoe stitched or flowered in foreign Parts with any Colour or Colours, or with coloured Flowers made there (Muslins, Neckcloths, and Fustians excepted) in such Manner as the Penalties inflicted by the said Act, for wearing or using printed, painted, stained, or dyed Callicoes, in Apparel, Household Stuff or Furniture, after the said Twenty-fifth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, contrary to the said Act, are to be levied or recovered, but under such Limitations, and with such Liberties, Privileges, and Advantages, as are mentioned and expressed in the said Act, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament then in force relating thereto, or relating to printed, painted, stained or dyed Callicoes: And whereas great Quantities of Stuffs made of Linen Yarn, and Cotton Wool, have for several Years past been manufactured, and have been printed and painted within this Kingdom of Great Britain, and the said Manufactures so printed or painted are a Branch of the ancient Fustian Manufacture of this Kingdom, and have been and are now used and worn in Apparel and Furniture: And whereas some Doubt hath lately arisen whether the Use and Wearing of the said Stuffs, when the same are so printed or painted, be prohibited by the said recited Act, whereby the said Manufacture is discouraged, and may be utterly lost, and great Numbers of His Majesty's Subjects and their Families, whose Livelihoods entirely depend thereupon, may be ruined and the Poor greatly increased, if not timely prevented: For remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That nothing in the said recited Act shall extend, or be construed to prohibit the wearing or using in Apparel, Household Stuff, Furniture or otherwise, any Sort of Stuff made of Linen Yarn and Cotton Wool manufactured and printed or painted with any Colour or Colours within the Kingdom of Great Britain, provided that the Warp thereof be intirely Linen Yarn; and that no Person shall incur, or be deemed or adjudged, or taken to incur, any Penalty or Forfeiture whatsoever for wearing or using such Manufacture so printed or painted as aforesaid; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

II And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That none of the Penalties in the said former Act, which may have been incurred for the wearing or using any Sort of Stuff made of Linen Yarn and Cotton Wool manufactured and printed or painted within this Kingdom as aforesaid, shall be recovered or levied, unless some Prosecution for the same hath been already commenced, and Judgement obtained thereupon; any Thing in the said former Act contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

14 Geo. 2. WHEREAS by an Act made in the Fourteenth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for opening a Trade to and from Persia through Russia) it is (amongst other Things) enacted, That from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and forty-one, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons, free, or to be free, of the Fellowship of English Merchants for Discovery of new Trades, commonly called The Russia Company, exclusive of all others, to bring and import into this Kingdom, in British-built Shipping, navigated according to Law, from any Port or Place of or belonging to the Czar or Emperor of Russia, Raw Silk, or any other Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of Persia (provided such Manufacture be made of the Growth or Produce of Persia) being purchased by Barter with Woollen, or other Manufactures, Goods, or Commodities, exported from Great Britain to Russia, and from thence carried into Persia (Gold and Silver in Coin or Bullion excepted) or with the Produce arising from the Sales of such Manufactures, Goods, or Commodities, so exported to Russia, and carried into Persia, as aforesaid, and not otherwise: And it is by the said Act also further enacted, That no Silk, or other Produce, Commodities, or Manufactures of Persia, shall be imported into Great Britain through Russia, by virtue of the said Act, unless the Importer or Importers thereof do take an Oath, or (being of the People called Quakers) a solemn Affirmation, before the Collector, Customer, or Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs (who are by the said Act impowered to administer the same) at the Port or Place of Importation, that, to the best of his or their Knowledge and Belief, the Silk and other the Produce, Commodities, or Manufactures of Persia, contained in his or their Entry or Entries, was or were really and truly purchased by Barter with Woollen, or other Manufactures, Goods, or Commodities, exported from Great Britain to Russia, and from thence carried into Persia (not being Gold or Silver in Coin or Bullion) or with the Produce arising from the Sales of such Woollen, or other Manufactures, Goods or Commodities, so exported as aforesaid, and not otherwise; and that in Default of taking such Oath or Affirmation, all such Silk or other the Produce, Commodities, or Manufactures of Persia, so imported from Russia, shall be liable to be seized and forfeited, in like Manner, as if the same had been imported contrary to the Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation: And whereas, soon after the Commencement of the said Act made in the Fourteenth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, a very beneficial Trade between Great Britain and Persia, through Russia, was opened, by Means whereof great Quantities of Raw Silk, and other the Goods and Commodities of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Persia, were imported into this Kingdom, in Return for the Woollen and other Manufactures, Goods, and Commodities of Great Britain, upon much easier and more advantageous Terms than such Silk, and other Goods and Commodities of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of Persia could have been otherwise procured: But whereas the said Trade between Great Britain and Persia, through Russia, hath been, for some Time past, interrupted, the Subjects of Great Britain not having been of late permitted to transport British Manufactures, Goods, and Commodities into Persia, through the Dominions or Territories of or belonging to the Empire of Russia, in consequence whereof the Importation of Raw Silk, and other Commodities of the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Persia, from Russia, hath been discontinued: And

5 GEORGII III. Cap. XLIII.

An Act for the better securing, and further Improvement of the Revenues of Customs, Excise, Inland, and Salt Duties; and for encouraging the Linen Manufacture of the Isle of Man; and for allowing the Importation of several Goods the Produce and Manufacture of the said Island, under certain Restrictions and Regulations.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty having been most graciously pleased, at the opening of this Session of Parliament, to recommend from the Throne to Your faithful Commons, the Continuance of that Attention which hath hitherto been shewn to the Improvement of the Publick Revenue, we have thought it our Duty to apply ourselves with the utmost Zeal and Assiduity to carry into Execution every proper Measure for the Attainment of that End; and though we have already prepared several Bills for that Purpose, which have received Your Royal Approbation, we are desirous to establish still further Regulations, which by a more exact and equal Collection of the Publick Revenue, and without laying any new Burthens on Your People, may tend to the Accomplishment of so great and salutary a Design: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, (intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses in His Majesty's Customs) it is amongst other Things enacted, That the Person or Persons which were or should be appointed for managing the Customs, and Officers of His Majesty's Customs, and their Deputies, should be thereby authorized and enabled to go and enter aboard any Ship or Vessel, as well Ships of War as Merchant Ships, from thence to bring on Shore all Goods prohibited or uncustomed, except Jewels, if they be outwards bound; and if they be Ships or Vessels, inwards bound, from thence to bring on Shore into His Majesty's Storehouse, all small Parcels of fine Goods, or other Goods, which should be found in 14 Car. 2.

Cabins, Chests, Trunks, or other small Package, or in any private or secret Place in or out of the Hold of the Ship or Vessel, which might occasion a just Suspicion that they were intended fraudulently to be conveyed away; and all other Sorts of Goods whatsoever, for which the Duties of Tonnage and Poundage were not paid or compounded for within Twenty Days after the First Entry of the Ship, to be put and remain in the Storehouse aforesaid, until His Majesty's Duties thereupon be paid; unless the said Person or Persons which were or should be appointed by His Majesty for managing the Customs, and Officers of the Customs, should see just Cause to allow a longer Time, as in and by the said recited Act more at large appears: And whereas in the Chests, Trunks, Bales, Casks, and other Package, which contained Goods so sent and carried to His Majesty's Storehouse by the Officers of the Customs, in pursuance of the said Act, and likewise in Packages which are brought on Shore by virtue of a Special Sufferance or Order from the Commissioners or Principal Officers of the Customs, to be examined before Entry and Payment of Duties, at the Request and Application of the Owners thereof; and also in and amongst such Goods themselves, there are often found concealed and enclosed Lace and other fine Goods and Merchandizes, which lie in little Compass, and of which no Entries are often intended to be made, or Duties paid for, by the Owners or Proprietors thereof, or their Agents, unless and until the same are discovered by the Officers of His Majesty's Customs; by which fraudulent Concealments the Revenue thereof is greatly defrauded: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the First Day of June One thousand seven hundred and sixty-five, all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes whatsoever, which shall be found enclosed and concealed as aforesaid, in any Chest, Trunk, Bale, Cask, or other Package, or in or amongst any of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes contained therein, at any Time after the same shall have been carried or sent to His Majesty's Storehouse by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs in pursuance of the said Act, and which shall not have been, within the Space of Twenty Days after the first Entry of the Ship in which they were imported, duly entered, and His Majesty's Customs and other Duties, for them paid or secured; or which shall be found concealed as aforesaid in any Chest, Trunk, Bale, Cask, or other Package, or inclosed in or amongst any of the Goods therein contained, which shall be brought on Shore by Special Sufferance, or Order from the Commissioners or Principal Officers of the Customs, at the Request and Application of the Proprietor or his Agent, and shall not be particularly specified and described in such Application, the same shall, in every such Case, be forfeited and lost, and shall and may be seized and prosecuted by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs; One Moiety of which Forfeitures shall be to the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety shall be to the Use of such Person and Persons as shall seize, inform, or sue for the same, after deducting the Charges of Condemnation and Sale from the gross Produce thereof; and such Seizures and Forfeitures shall and may be prosecuted, tried, and determined, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh respectively; wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance shall be allowed.

Unentered Goods found concealed in any Package, or Merchandize sent to the King's Storehouses, or in any Package, or Goods brought on Shore by Special Sufferance, or Order, and not specified therein, are liable to Seizure and Forfeiture.

II. And whereas it does frequently happen, that Goods and Merchandizes imported, paying Duty ad Valorem, do upon View and Examination by the proper Officers of the Customs appear not to have been valued, by the Oath or Affirmation of the Importer according to the true Value and Price thereof; and notwithstanding Demand is made in Writing by the Customer, or Collector and Comptroller of the Port where such Goods are entered, for Delivery of the same into His Majesty's Warehouse at the Port of Importation, for the Use and Benefit of the Crown, agreeable to the Directions of an Act of Parliament made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, King George the First, (intituled, An Act for rating such unrated Goods and Merchandizes as are usually imported into this Kingdom, and pay Duty ad Valorem, upon the Oath of the Importer; and for ascertaining the Value of all Goods and Merchandizes not inserted in the former or present Book of Rates; and for repealing certain Duties upon Drugs and Rags; and for continuing the Duties upon Apples; and for ascertaining the Method of admeasuring Pictures imported) yet the Importers or Proprietors of such Goods or Merchandizes do sometimes neglect or refuse to deliver the same, or to cause the same to be delivered, into His Majesty's Warehouse; by which Means the said recited Act is rendered ineffectual to answer the Purposes thereby intended; the Officers of the Customs not being thereby impowered to carry such Goods or Merchandizes to His Majesty's Warehouse, although the Importers or Proprietors thereof shall neglect or refuse so to do: Now, to remedy this Inconvenience for the future, and for an Encouragement to the Officers of the Customs to be diligent in the Execution of their Duty, be it enacted, That from and after the First Day of June One thousand seven hundred and sixty-five, upon the Importation of any Goods, or Merchandizes, paying Duty ad Valorem, where, upon View and Examination thereof by the proper Officers of the and after all Charges deducted, One Moiety of the Surplus to go to the Officers concerned, and the other Moiety to the Sinking Fund.

XXXIV. Ships to be examined, &c. before Certificates are granted, &c.

Persons giving false Descriptions, or making false Registries, &c. of Ships, forfeit 100l.

XIII. And be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if such Person or Persons so appointed to examine and admeasure such Ships or Vessels as aforesaid, shall wilfully deliver to any Person or Persons authorized to make Registry, and grant Certificates of Registry as aforesaid, a false Description of any of the Particulars hereby required to be contained in such Certificate; or if any Person or Persons herein-before authorized to make such Registry, and grant such Certificates of Registry, shall knowingly make any false Register, or grant any false Certificate, in regard to any of the Particulars required by this present Act, he or they on being convicted thereof by due Course of Law, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in the Court of Justiciary, or the Courts of Exchequer in Scotland, or in any Court of Record in the said Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories, or in the Royal Court in Guernsey or Jersey, or in the Superior Court of Justice in the Isle of Man, as the Case may be, shall respectively forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and be for ever incapable of holding or enjoying any Office or Employment under His Majesty.

Method of ascertaining the Tonnage, when Vessels are afloat.

XIV. And whereas the Officer or Officers so appointed to examine and admeasure such Ships and Vessels as aforesaid, may not always be enabled to cause such Ship or Vessel to be laid on shore, for the Purpose of ascertaining her Tonnage, according to the Rule now by Law prescribed for that Purpose:

And whereas it would in some Cases endanger such Ship or Vessel so to do: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in Cases where it may be necessary to ascertain the Tonnage of any such Ships or Vessels when afloat, the following Method shall be observed, videlicet, Drop a Plumb Line over the Stern of the Ship, and measure the Distance between such Line and the After Part of the Stern Post, at the Load Water Mark; then measure from the Top of the said Plumb Line, in a parallel Direction with the Water, to a perpendicular Point immediately over the Load Water Mark, at the Fore Part of the Main Stem, subtracting from such Measurement the above Distance, the Remainder will be the Ship's extreme Length, from which is to be deducted Three Inches for every Foot of the Load Draught of Water, for the Rake Abaft, and also Three Fifths of the Ships Breadth for the Rake Forward, the Remainder shall be esteemed the just Length of the Keel to find the Tonnage; and the Breadth shall be taken from Outside to Outside of the Plank, in the broadest Part of the Ship, either above or below the Main Wales, exclusive of all Manner of Sheathing or Doubling that may be wrought upon the Side of the Ship; then multiplying the Length of the Keel for Tonnage, by the Breadth so taken, and that Product by Half the Breadth, and dividing by Ninety-four, the Quotient shall be deemed the true Contents of the Tonnage: Provided always, that nothing herein-before contained shall in anywise be construed to alter the Manner of admeasuring the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel which has heretofore been practised for the Purpose of ascertaining the Light Duties, or any other Duties or Imposts whatever, payable according to the Tonnage of any Ship or Vessel.

Bond to be given, not to send Certificates, and to return them in Cases herein specified.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, at the Time of obtaining the Certificate of Registry as aforesaid, sufficient Security by Bond shall be given to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, by the Master and such of the Owners as shall personally attend, as is herein-before required, such Security to be approved of and taken by the Person or Persons herein-before authorized to make such Registry, and grant such Certificates of Registry, at the Port or Place in which such Certificate shall be granted, in the Penalties following; (that is to say), If such Ship or Vessel shall be a Decked Vessel, or be above the Burthen of Fifteen Tons and not exceeding Fifty Tons, in the Penalty of One hundred Pounds; if exceeding the Burthen of Fifty Tons, and not exceeding One hundred Tons, in the Penalty of Three hundred Pounds; if exceeding the Burthen of One hundred Tons, and not exceeding Two hundred Tons, in the Penalty of Five hundred Pounds; if exceeding the Burthen of Two hundred Tons, and not exceeding Three hundred Tons, in the Penalty of Eight hundred Pounds; and if exceeding the Burthen of Three hundred Tons, in the Penalty of One thousand Pounds: And the Condition of every such Bond shall be, that such Certificate shall not be sold, sent or otherwise disposed of, to any Person or Persons whatever, and that the same shall be solely made use of for the Service of the Ship or Vessel for which it is granted; and that in Case such Ship shall be lost or taken by the Enemy, burnt, or broken up, or otherwise prevented from returning to the Port to which she belongs, the Certificate, if preserved, shall be delivered up, within One Month after the Arrival of the Master in any Port or Place in His Majesty's Dominions, to the Collector and Comptroller of some Port in Great Britain, or of the Isle of Man, or of the British Plantations, or to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the Time being, of the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey; and that if any Foreigner, or any Person or Persons for his Use and Benefit, shall purchase or otherwise become entitled to the Whole, or any Part or Share of, or any Interest in such Ship or Vessel, and the same shall be within the Limits of any Port in Great Britain, Guernsey, Jersey, Man, or the British Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories aforesaid, then and in such Case the Certificate of Registry shall, within Seven Days after such Purchase or Transfer of Property in such Ship or Vessel, be delivered up to the Person or Persons herein-before authorized to make Registry, and grant Certificates of Registry, at such Port or Place respectively, as aforesaid; and if such Ship or Vessel shall be in any Foreign Port when such Purchase or Transfer of Interest or Property shall take Place, then that the same shall be delivered up to the British Consul, or other Chief British Officer, resident at or nearest to such Foreign Port; or if such Ship or Vessel shall be at Sea when such Purchase or Transfer of Interest or Property shall take Place, then that the same shall be delivered up to the British Consul, or other Chief British Officer, at the Foreign Port or Place in or at which the Master, or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall first arrive after such Purchase or Transfer of Property at Sea, immediately after his Arrival at such Foreign Port; but if such Master or other Person who had the Command thereof at the Time of such Purchase or Transfer of Property at Sea, shall not arrive at a Foreign Port, but shall arrive at some Port of Great Britain, Guernsey, Jersey, Man, or His Majesty's said Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories, then that the same shall be delivered up in Manner aforesaid, within Fourteen Days after the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel, or of the Person who had the Command thereof, in any Port of Great Britain, Guernsey, Jersey, Man, or any of His Majesty's said Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories: And that if any Pass, commonly called

A Mediterranean Pass, shall have been obtained or procured for any such Ship or Vessel, then and in such Case the same shall be delivered up at the same Time, and in like Manner, with the Certificate of Registry aforesaid, to the Person or Persons herein-before authorized to receive such Certificate of Registry: And such Certificates so delivered up shall forthwith be transmitted to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively: And such Mediterranean Passes shall be also transmitted to the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, by the Person or Persons herein-before authorized to receive such Certificates and Passes, in order that the same may be cancelled.

Mediterranean Passes to be delivered up with Certificates.

XVI. And whereas the Provisions made in and by the said recited Act, touching the Indorsement on Certificates of Registry, in case of any Alteration of the Property in any Ship or Vessel, in the same Port to which the Ship or Vessel belongs, have been found insufficient; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, in every such Case, besides the Indorsement required by the said recited Act, there shall also be indorsed on the Certificate of Registry, before Two Witnesses, the Town, Place, or Parish where all and every Person or Persons to whom the Property in any Ship or Vessel, or any Part thereof, shall be so transferred, shall reside; or if such Person or Persons uſually reside in any Country not under the Dominion of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, but in some British Factory, the Name of ſuch Factory of which such Person or Persons is or are Member or Members; or if such Person or Persons reside in any Foreign Town or City, and are not Members of some British Factory, the Name of ſuch Foreign Town or City where such Person or Persons usually reside, and also the Names of the House or Co-partnership in Great Britain or Ireland, for or with whom such Perſon or Persons is or are Agent or Partner, or Agents or Partners; and the Person or Persons to whom the Property of such Ship or Vessel shall be so transferred, or his or their Agent, shall also deliver a Copy of such Indorsement to the Person or Persons authorized to make Registry, and grant Certificates of Registry, as aforesaid, who are hereby required to cause an Entry thereof to be indorsed on the Oath or Affidavit upon which the original Certificate of Registry of such Ship or Vessel was obtained; and shall also make a Memorandum of the same in the Book of Registers which is hereby directed and required to be kept, and shall forthwith give Notice thereof to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland under whom they respectively act.

Tenor of Indorsements on Certificates of Registry, &c.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and so often as the Property in any Ship or Vessel, belonging to any of His Majesty's Subjects, shall be transferred to any other or others of His Majesty's Subjects, in Whole or in Part, the Certificate of the Registry of such Ship or Vessel shall be truly and accurately recited, in Words at Length, in the Bill or other Instrument of Sale thereof, and that otherwise such Bill of Sale shall be utterly null and void, to all Intents and Purposes.

Certificate to be recited in all Transfers of Property.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and so often as the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel, registered in Manner herein-before directed, shall be changed, the Master or Owner of such Ship or Vessel shall deliver to the Person or Persons herein-before authorized to make such Registry, and grant such Certificates of Registry at the Port where such Change shall take Place, the Certificates of Registry belonging to such Ship or Vessel; who shall thereupon indorse and subscribe a Memorandum of such Change, and shall forthwith give Notice of the same to the proper Officer of the Port or Place where such Ship or Vessel was last registered pursuant to this Act; who shall likewise make a Memorandum of the same in the Book of Registers which is hereby directed and required to be kept, and shall forthwith give Notice thereof to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively.

Changes of Masters of Vessels to be indorsed on Certificates of Registry, &c.

XIX. And whereas many Frauds are committed by the frequent Change of Names given to Ships and Vessels, and the Difficulty of comparing the Entry in the Book of Registers, herein-after directed to be kept by all such Person or Persons as are authorized to register Ships and Vessels, and to grant Certificates of the same, with the Registers of which they claim the Benefit, is thereby greatly increased; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful for any Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel to give any Name to such Ship or Vessel, other than that by which she was first registered in pursuance of this Act; and that the Owner or Owners of all and every Ship or Vessel which shall be so registered, shall within One Month from the Time of such Registry, paint or cause to be painted, in White or Yellow Letters, of a Length not less than Four Inches, upon a Black Ground, on some conspicuous Part of the Stern (provided there shall be sufficient Space for that Purpose, but if not, then in Letters as large as such Space will admit) the Name by which such Ship or Vessel shall have been registered pursuant to this Act, and the Port to which she belongs, in a distinct and legible Manner,

No Charge to be made in Ships Name, which, and their Ports, must be painted conspicuously on the Vessels.

100l. Penalty on altering, &c. Names.

and shall so keep and preserve the same; and that if such Owner or Owners, or Master, or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall wilfully alter, erase, obliterate, or in anywise hide or conceal, or cause or procure, or permit the same to be done, unless in the Case of Square-rigged Vessels in Time of War, or shall in any written or printed Paper, or other Document, describe such Ship or Vessel by any Name, other than that by which she was first registered pursuant to this Act, or shall verbally describe, or cause or procure or permit such Ship or Vessel to be described by any other Name, to any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Revenue, in the due Execution of his or their Duty, then, and in every such Case, such Owner or Owners, Master, or other Person, having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Persons applying for Certificates in Great Britain, &c. to produce a particular Account of the Ships from the Builders, and make Oath to their Identity.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons who shall apply for a Certificate of the Registry of any Ship or Vessel, in Great Britain, Guernsey, Jersey, or the Isle of Man, which shall be built or whose Building shall be completed after the First Day of August One thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, shall, and they are hereby required to produce to the Person or Persons authorized to grant such Certificate, a true and full Account, under the Hand of the Builder of such Ship or Vessel, of the proper Denomination, and of the Time when, and the Place where, such Ship or Vessel was built; and also an exact Account of the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel, together with the Name of the First Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, (which Account such Builder is hereby directed and required to give under his Hand, on the same being demanded by such Person or Persons so applying for a Certificate as aforesaid); and shall also make Oath, before the Person or Persons herein-before authorized to grant such Certificate (which Oath he or they are hereby authorized to administer) that the Ship or Vessel for which such Certificate is required, is the same with that which is so described by the Builder as aforesaid.

Persons making Application in the Colonies, after Jan. 1, 1787, to conform to the Particulars in the last Clause.

If Certificates be lost, new ones to be granted, according to Act 15 G. 2. c. 31.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Certificate of the Registry of any Ship or Vessel which shall be obtained in pursuance of this Act, shall happen to be lost or mislaid, a Registry and Certificate de novo, in the Form herein-before directed, shall be granted for such Ship or Vessel, according to the Regulations contained in an Act passed in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for further regulating the Plantation Trade; and for Relief of Merchants importing Prize Goods from America; and for preventing collusive Captures there; and for obliging the Claimers of Vessels seized for Exportation of Wool, or any unlawful Importation, to give Security for Costs; and for allowing East India Goods to be taken out of Warehouses, in order to be cleaned and refreshed.

Security to be given on receiving fresh Certificates, and Oath made as herein-before directed, instead of the Oath 15 G. 2. c. 31.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every such Case such Security shall be given as is herein-before directed; and that in lieu of the Oath directed to be taken by the said recited Act, the like Oath shall be taken and subscribed as is herein-before directed to be taken and subscribed by the Owner or Owners of such Ships and Vessels as are required to be registered by virtue of this Act.

Ships, if altered, must be registered anew, or to be deemed foreign.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Ship or Vessel, after she shall have been registered pursuant to the Directions of this Act, shall in any Manner whatever be altered in Form or Burthen, by being lengthened or built upon, or shall be altered from a Sloop to a Brigantine, or from any one Denomination of a Vessel to another, by the Mode or Method of rigging or fitting, in such Case such Ship or Vessel shall be registered de novo, in Manner herein-before required, as soon as she returns to the Port to which she belongs, or to any other Port in which she may be legally registered by virtue of this Act, on Failure whereof such Ship or Vessel shall to all Intents and Purposes be considered, and deemed, and taken to be a Foreign Ship or Vessel.

The Condemnation of Prizes, and the Particulars of the Vessels, &c. must be produced, to entitle to a Certificate of Registry.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Owner or Owners of all such Ships and Vessels as shall be taken by any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or by any private or other Ship or Vessel, and condemned as lawful Prize in any Court of Admiralty, shall upon registering such Ship or Vessel, before he or they shall obtain such Certificate as aforesaid, produce to the proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs a Certificate of the Condemnation of such Ship or Vessel, under the Hand and Seal of the Judge of the Court in which such Ship or Vessel shall have been condemned (which Certificate such Judge is hereby authorized and required to grant), and also a true and exact Account, in Writing, of all the Particulars contained in the Certificate herein-before set forth, to be made and subscribed by One or more skilful Persons to be appointed by the Court to survey such Ship or Vessel; and shall also make Oath before the said Officer (which he is hereby authorized and required to administer) that such Ship or Vessel is the same Vessel which is mentioned in the Certificate of the Judge aforesaid.

XXVIII. And whereas the Trade to and from His Majesty's European Dominions, and the Colonies, Plantations, Islands, and Territories, in Asia, Africa, and America, to His Majesty belonging, is now by Law confined to such Ships only as are of the Built of Great Britain and Ireland, the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Man, and of the said Colonies, Plantations, Islands, and Territories: And whereas Ships wholly owned by British Subjects, and navigated according to Law, can be legally used and employed only in the European Trade of this Kingdom, and the same are, by virtue of this Act, allowed to be continued in the said Trade until the same shall be worn out; and it is therefore necessary to distinguish such Ships and Vessels respectively in the Certificates to be granted pursuant to this Act; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Certificates which shall hereafter be granted in pursuance of this Act, shall distinguish whether such Ships or Vessels be of the Built of Great Britain or Ireland, Guernsey, Jersey, or the Isle of Man, or the Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories aforesaid, or of any Foreign Country; and shall, if British-built, be intituled, Certificate of British Plantation Registry; and if such Ships be Foreign-built, shall be intituled, Certificate of Foreign Ships Registry for the European Trade British Property, as the Case may be.

XXIX. And whereas many Foreign-built Ships and Vessels belonging to, or pretending to belong to, His Majesty's Subjects, have by fraudulent Contrivances, and under false Pretences, obtained Registers, by virtue of which such Ships and Vessels are at present used and employed, contrary to the Laws now in force, in the Trade to and from His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories, in Asia, Africa, and America; and it is therefore expedient and necessary, for detecting the Frauds at present committed, and for preventing the same in future, that all Registers heretofore granted should be called in, and delivered up to the proper Officer to be cancelled, and that new Registers, of the Form herein-before described, should be granted in lieu thereof, in the Manner herein before directed, to all such Ships or Vessels as shall appear to be legally entitled to the same: And whereas it is expedient to specify and direct at what Time, and in what Manner, all other Ships and Vessels, which are not now by Law required to be registered, should hereafter be registered according to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, and should receive Certificates according to the Form and in the Manner herein-before directed: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively, be authorized and required, and they are hereby authorized and required, to give publick Notice, by all such Ways and Means as they shall judge most proper and effectual, that within a certain reasonable Time or Times as may be best adapted to the Distance of the Ports to which the Ships and Vessels owned by His Majesty's Subjects shall respectively belong, to be by them specified and published, Certificates of Registry, according to the Form herein-before described, will be ready to be granted, in Manner herein-before directed, to all such Ships and Vessels as shall be legally entitled thereunto; and that the Owner or Owners of every such Ship or Vessel, not heretofore required to be registered, shall, on the First Arrival of every such Ship or Vessel at the Port or Place to which she belongs, after the Expiration of the Notice herein-before directed, cause such Ship or Vessel to be registered, and shall obtain a Certificate thereof, in Manner herein-before directed; and that the Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel, which shall have been heretofore registered, shall in like Manner, upon the First Arrival of such Ship or Vessel at the Port or Place to which she belongs, after the Expiration of the Notice herein-before directed, cause such Ship or Vessel to be again registered, and obtain a Certificate thereof, according to the Form and in the Manner herein-before described, and shall then deliver up the Register before granted, if the same be not lost or mislaid, and if the same shall have been lost or mislaid shall make Oath before the proper Officer of the Customs, that such Register has been lost or mislaid, and shall give Security in like Manner as is directed and required by the said Act passed in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, in the Case of Registers and Certificates de novo.

Times allowed for obtaining such Certificates.

XXX. And be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Expiration of the Notice herein-before directed, Twelve Months shall be allowed to all Ships and Vessels belonging to any of the Ports of Great Britain, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, to be registered, and obtain Certificates according to the Form and in the Manner herein-before described; and that in like Manner from and after the Expiration of the Notice herein-before directed, Eighteen Months shall be allowed to all Ships and Vessels belonging to any of the Ports in His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories in Africa or America, to be registered, and to obtain Certificates according to the Form and in the Manner herein-before described; and that, in like Manner, from and after the Expiration of the Notice herein-before directed, Thirty Months shall be allowed to all Ships and Vessels trading or fishing beyond the Cape of Good Hope, or Cape Horn, to be registered, and obtain Certificates according to the Form, and in the Manner herein-before described; and that at the End of the said Term of Twelve Months, with respect to such Ships and Vessels as belong to the Ports of Great Britain, and the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man; and in like Manner, at the End of the said Term of Eighteen Months, with respect to all Ships and Vessels that belong to any of the Ports of His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories, in Africa or America; and in like Manner, at the End of the said Term of Thirty Months, with respect to all Ships and Vessels trading or fishing beyond the Cape of Good Hope or Cape Horn, no other Register or Certificate shall be of Force or Effect, except such as shall be granted in pursuance of this Act; and that all other Registers and Certificates shall from thenceforth be utterly null and void, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Certificates may be granted, where, from unavoidable Necessity, Application could not be made in Time limited.

XXXI. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case it shall happen that any such Ship or Vessel, from any unavoidable Necessity, or reasonable Cause, shall not return to the Port to which she belongs within the Time herein-before limited, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively for the Time being, and they are hereby required, upon Proof being made to their Sstisfaction of such unavoidable Necessity or reasonable Cause, to cause such Ship or Vessel to be registered upon the Terms and Conditions, and under the Regulations and Restrictions directed and required by this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Ships leaving Port without Certificates to be forfeited.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Ship or Vessel, which by this Act is directed to be hereafter registered, or which is directed, instead of the Register now required by Law, to take out a new Register, according to the Form, and in the Manner herein-before described, shall be permitted, after her First Arrival at the Port to which she belongs, at the Expiration of the Notice herein-before directed, to clear outwards to foreign Parts or Coastwise, or to proceed to Sea in order to fish on the Coasts, or for any other Purpose whatever as a British Ship or Vessel, or shall be in anywise entitled to the Privileges of a British Ship or Vessel, unless the Owner or Owners thereof shall have obtained a Certificate according to the Form, and in the Manner herein-before described; and in case any such Ship or Vessel shall depart from such Port without being registered, and without having obtained a Certificate as aforesaid, every such Ship or Vessel shall be subject to Forfeiture, and also all the Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, to such Ship or Vessel belonging.

If Ships be found without the Port to which they belong, without Certificates, Bond must be given that they shall be procured.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, after the Expiration of the Notice aforesaid, any Ship or Vessel (being square-rigged) shall be found in any Port within the Distance of Twenty Leagues by Water from the Port to which she belongs, or if any Vessel not being square-rigged, be found within any Port, other than that to which she belongs, without having obtained the Certificate of Registry herein-before directed, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Principal Officer or Officers of such Port, and he or they is and are hereby required to detain such Ship or Vessel, until the Master, or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command thereof, shall, if such Ship or Vessel be under the Burthen of Fifty Tons, give Security by Bond in the Penalty of Fifty Pounds, in Manner herein-after directed; and if such Ship or Vessel shall exceed the Burthen of Fifty Tons, and shall not exceed that of One hundred Tons, then until the Master, or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command thereof, shall, in like Manner, give Security by Bond in the Penalty of One hundred Pounds; and if such Ship or Vessel shall exceed the Burthen of One hundred Tons, then until the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command thereof, shall, together with One sufficient Security, (to be approved by such principal Officer or Officers), give Bond to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to be taken by such Officer or Officers, in the Penalty of Two hundred Pounds, with Condition that such Master, or other Person so having or taking the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel, shall forthwith repair with her, as soon as conveniently may be, (or, being employed in the Fishery on the Banks of Newfoundland, and Parts adjacent, at the End of the Fishing Season), to the Port to which she belongs, and there cause her to be registered, and procure a Certificate of such Registry, in the Form and Manner herein-before directed, and produce and deliver to such Officer or Officers such Certificate of Registry, within the Time limited in the Condition of such Bond; which Limitation of Time such Officer or Officers is and are hereby authorized to fix, according to the Distance which such Ship or Vessel may be from the Port to which she belongs, and the Nature of the Voyage in which she may then be engaged, and on Failure of producing and delivering such Certificate as aforesaid, such Bond shall be forfeited; but if such Certificate shall be produced and delivered to such Officer or Officers within the Time so limited in the Bond, such Bond shall be void and of none Effect, and he or they is and are hereby authorized and required to cancel the same: And in case any square-rigged Ship or Vessel, after the Expiration of the Notice aforesaid, shall be found in any Port distant more than Twenty Leagues by Water from the Port to which she belongs, or that the Water at the Entrance of the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs shall be so shallow as not to admit her Entrance into the same, without endangering the Safety of such Ship or Vessel, the Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall, within Forty-eight Hours after his Arrival at such Port as aforesaid, make known his Arrival to the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs, or other principal Officer of such Port, and shall require such Collector and Comptroller, or other principal Officer, to cause his Ship or Vessel to be surveyed by the proper Officer at such Port, who shall be appointed pursuant to the Directions of this Act to survey Ships and Vessels there, and who shall accordingly make a perfect and accurate Survey thereof, and certify the several Particulars thereof in like Manner as is herein-before directed; and such Collector and Comptroller, or other principal Officer, shall immediately transmit the said Certificate of Survey to the Persons authorized to register Ships and Vessels, and grant Certificates of Registry, at the Port to which such Ship or Vessel belongs, who thereupon, and upon all the other Requisites of this Act being complied with, shall register such Ship or Vessel, and grant a Certificate of the Registry thereof pursuant to this Act; and it shall and may be lawful to and for the Collector and Comptroller, or other principal Officer or Officers of the Customs in the Port where such Ship or Vessel shall be so found, and he or they are hereby authorized and required to detain such Ship or Vessel, until a perfect and accurate Survey thereof shall be made in Manner herein-before directed.

XLII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted and incurred by this Act shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered in such Courts, and be disposed of in such Manner, and by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Penalties or Forfeitures inflicted, or which may be incurred, for any Offence committed against the Laws of Customs, may now legally be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of; and that the Officer or Officers concerned in Seizures or Prosecutions under this Act, shall be entitled to and receive the same Share of the Produce arising from such Seizures, as in the Case of Seizure for unlawful Importation, and to such Share of the Produce arising from any pecuniary Fine or Penalty, for any Offence against this Act, as any Officer or Officers is or are now by any Law or Regulation entitled to, upon Prosecutions for pecuniary Penalties.

How Penalties are to be recovered, and what is the Officers Share.

XLIII. And it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Matter contained in the said herein-before recited Acts, or in any Act or Acts of Parliament heretofore passed touching the Trade, Shipping, and Navigation of Great Britain, and the Colonies, Plantations, Islands, and Territories aforesaid thereunto belonging, which is not hereby expressly altered or repealed, shall remain and continue in full Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes whatever; and so far as the same relate to the Registry of Ships and Vessels, shall be deemed and taken to extend and apply in every Respect to all Ships and Vessels authorized and required by this Act to be registered and to have Certificates of Registry.

26 GEORGII III. Cap. LXXVII.

An Act to limit a Time for the Repayment of the Duties on Male Servants and Carriages by the Commissioners of Excise; and also on Horses, Waggons, Wains, and Carts, by the Commissioners of Stamps; and for the Amendment of several Laws relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise.

Act 19 G. 3. c. 69. Part recited relative to Recognizances to be entered into by Masters of Ships discovered to have had on board a larger Quantity of Tea, &c. than is permitted.

IX. AND whereas by an Act made in the Nineteenth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the pernicious Practices of Smuggling in this Kingdom, and for indemnifying Persons who have been guilty of Offences against the Laws of the Customs and Excise, upon the Terms therein mentioned, it was enacted, That in all Cases where the Officers of Customs or Excise should discover and find, on board any Ship or Vessel coming and arriving from Foreign Parts, within the Limits of any of the Ports of this Kingdom, more than One hundred Pounds Weight of Tea, not being in the Ships belonging to or employed by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or more than One hundred Gallons of Foreign Brandy, or of other foreign Spirituous Liquors, over and above the Quantity of Two Gallons for every Seaman then belonging to and on board such Ship or Vessel, and being in Casks under Sixty Gallons, the Master, or other Person having or taking the Charge of such Ship or Vessel, should forfeit the Sum of Three hundred Pounds; and that it should and might be lawful, in such Case, for any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, and for all other Persons acting in their Aid and Assistance, and they and each of them was and were thereby authorized to arrest, take, and detain the said Master, or other Person so having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, and to carry and convey the Person so taken before any One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace residing near to the Place where such Ship or Vessel should then be, or where such Person should be arrested and taken, and the Person so carried and conveyed should be obliged to enter into a Recognizance, as in the said Act is directed: And whereas it has been found by Experience, that the single Recognizance of the Person directed by the said Act to enter into the same is ineffectual to answer the good Purposes by the said Act intended; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the First Day of August One thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, every Person so carried and conveyed before any One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, according to the Directions in the said in Part recited Clause, shall be obliged to enter into a Recognizance to His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, before such Justice, with One other sufficient Surety, to be approved of by such Justice, in the Sum of Three hundred Pounds, (which Recognizance such Justice is hereby required to take), with Condition to enter an Appearance in the Courts of Exchequer in England and Scotland respectively, within the First Four Days of the Term next ensuing such Arrest, to any Information which shall or may be exhibited against him; and such Justice shall and is hereby required forthwith to transmit every such Recognizance to the King's Remembrancer in such of the said respective Courts; and if such Person shall refuse to enter into such Recognizance as aforesaid, then such Justice shall commit such Person to the next County Gaol, there to remain until he shall enter into such Recognizance.

Such Masters to enter into a Recognizance with One sufficient Security, for 300l. to enter Appearance to Informations, and refusing so to do, to be imprisoned.

Actions for Penalties to be filed in the Name of the Attorney General, or of an Officer of the Customs or Excise, or to be void.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said First Day of August One thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever to commence, prosecute, enter, or file, or cause or procure to be commenced, prosecuted, entered, or filed, any Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, or Actions, Bills, Plaints, or Informations, in any of His Majesty's Courts, against any Person or Persons, for the Recovery of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, made or incurred by virtue of any Act or Acts now in force, or hereafter to be made, relating to either of His Majesty's Revenues of Customs or Excise, unless the same be commenced, prosecuted, entered, or filed, in the Name of His Majesty's Attorney General, or in the Name or Names of some Officer or Officers of some or One of His Majesty's said Revenues; and if any Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, Actions, Bills, Plaints, or Informations, is or are commenced, prosecuted, entered, or filed, in any other Person or Persons Name or Names, than is in that Behalf before mentioned, the same, and all Proceedings thereupon had, are hereby declared to be null and void; and the said Court or Courts, where such Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, or Actions, Bills, Plaints, or Informations, is, are, or shall be so commenced, prosecuted, entered or filed, shall not permit or suffer any Proceeding or Proceedings to be had thereupon.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Prosecution shall be commenced or depending by any Officer or Officers of either of His Majesty's Revenues of Customs or Excise, for the Recovery of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, incurred by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, or hereafter to be made, relating to either of His Majesty's said Revenues, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's Attorney General, in case it shall appear to his Satisfaction that such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, or Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, was or were incurred without any Intention of Fraud, to stop all further Proceedings by entering a Noli Prosequi, or otherwise, on every such Information, as well with respect to the Share of such Forfeiture, Fine, Penalty, or Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, to which any such Officer or Officers shall or may claim to be entitled, as to the Share thereof belonging to His Majesty; any Law to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Attorney General may enter a Noli prosequi in any Action for Fines.

Preamble.

XVIII. And whereas Persons who have been guilty of assaulting or obstructing Officers of the Customs or Excise in the due Execution of their Offices, or of rescuing or attempting to rescue, Goods seized by such Officers, or of Offences against the Laws respecting Quarantine being prosecuted for the same by Indictment or Information in His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, do frequently escape Punishment by reason that such Persons have not been usually put under any Recognizance to answer such Indictment or Information, unless in Cases where some specifick pecuniary Penalty is imposed, or where the Offence having been committed in the County of Middlesex, an Indictment for the same has been originally found in the said Court of King's Bench; for Remedy thereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whenever any Person or Persons shall be charged with assaulting or obstructing any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, in the due Execution of his or their Office or Offices, or any Person or Persons acting in his or their Aid or Assistance, or with rescuing or attempting to rescue by Force any uncustomed or prohibited Goods, after Seizure thereof by such Officer or Officers, or with any Offence against any Law respecting Quarantine, and the same shall be made appear to any Judge of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, by Affidavit or by Certificate of an Indictment or Information being filed against such Person or Persons in the said Court for such Offence, it shall and may be lawful for such Judge to issue his Warrant in Writing under his Hand and Seal, and thereby to cause such Person or Persons to be apprehended and brought before him, or some other Judge of the said Court, or before some one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in order to his, her, or their being bound to the King's Majesty with Two sufficient Sureties in such Sum as in the said Warrant shall be expressed, with Condition to appear in the said Court at the Time mentioned in such Warrant, and to answer to all and singular Indictments or Informations for any the Offences aforesaid; and in case such Person or Persons shall neglect or refuse to become bound as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Judge or Justice of the Peace, respectively, to commit such Person or Persons to the Common Gaol of the County, City, or Place, where the Offence shall have been committed, or where he, she, or they shall have been apprehended, until he, she, or they shall have become bound as aforesaid, or shall be discharged by order of the said Court of King's Bench in Term Time, or by One of the Judges of the said Court in Vacation; and the Recognizance or Recognizances to be taken thereupon shall be returned and filed in the said Court, and shall continue in Force until such Person or Persons shall have been acquitted of such Offence, or in case of Conviction, shall have received Judgement for the same, unless sooner ordered by the said Court to be discharged.

Mode of Proceedings when Masters withhold Certificates of Registry.

XVIII. And whereas by an Act, passed in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act more effectually to secure the Performance of Quarantine, and for amending several Laws relating to the Revenue of Customs, certain Provisions were, amongst other Things, made to prevent the Masters of Ships or Vessels from wilfully and maliciously detaining and refusing to deliver up the Certificates of Ships Registry, to the Prejudice of the Owners of such Ships or Vessels: And whereas the good Purposes intended by those Provisions have not been effected; and it is therefore expedient to make further Provisions for preventing the Masters of Ships or Vessels from withholding Certificates of Registry, to the Prejudice of the Owners of such Ships or Vessels: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Master of any Ship or Vessel, who shall have received the Certificate of the Registry thereof, (whether such Master shall be a Part Owner or not), shall wilfully detain and refuse to deliver up the same to the proper Officers impowered to make Registry and grant a Certificate thereof, on the Owner or Owners, or the major Part of the Owners, of such Ship or Vessel, if such Master has not any Property therein, or on the other Owner or Owners, or the major Part of the other Owners, of such Ship or Vessel, if such Master hath any Share or Property therein, requiring him so to do, it may and shall be lawful to and for the Owner or Owners, or the major Part of the Owners, of such Ship or Vessel, the Certificate of Registry of which shall be detained and refused to be delivered up as aforesaid, to make Complaint on Oath against the Master of the Ship or Vessel who shall so detain and refuse to deliver up the same, of such Detainer and Refusal to any Justice of the Peace residing near to the Place where such Detainer and Refusal shall be in Great Britain, or to any Member of the Supreme Court of Justice, or any Justice of the Peace in the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, or Man, or in any Colony, Plantation, Island, or Territory, to His Majesty belonging in America or the West Indies, where such Detainer and Refusal shall be in any of the Places last mentioned, and on such Complaint the said Justice or other Magistrate shall, and is hereby required, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cause such Master to be brought before him to be examined touching such Detainer and Refusal; and if it shall appear to the said Justice or other Magistrate, on Examination of the Master, or otherwise, that the said Certificate of Registry is not Justices to certify Detainer of Certificates, on which Registry may be made de novo.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the said Justice or other Magistrate shall, and he is hereby required to certify the aforesaid Detainer, Refusal, and Conviction, to the Person or Persons who granted such Certificate of Registry for such Ship or Vessel, who shall, on the Terms and Conditions of Law being complied with, make Registry of such Ship or Vessel de novo, and grant a Certificate thereof conformably to Law, notifying on the Back of such Certificate the Ground upon which the Ship or Vessel was so registered de novo.

Where Property is transferred no Vessel to be registered de novo by the Register unless Instrument of Sale be produced:

XX. And whereas it is expedient that the Officers impowered to make Registry of Ships and Vessels, and to grant Certificates thereof, in case any such Ship or Vessel is required to be registered de novo, should be authorized to require the Production of every Bill or other Instrument of Sale, by which the Property in any Ship or Vessel is transferred; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and so often as the Property in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any of His Majesty's Subject's shall by Sale be transferred, in Whole or in Part, to any other or others of His Majesty's Subjects, and such Ship or Vessel shall be required to be registered de novo, it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every the Officer and Officers impowered to make Registry of Ships and Vessels, and to grant Certificates thereof, to require, and he and they are hereby authorized and directed to require, the Bill or other Instrument of Sale thereof to be produced to him or them; and in case such Bill or other Instrument of Sale shall be so required to be produced, and the same shall not be produced to such Officer or Officers, the said Officer or Officers shall not make a Registry, nor grant a Certificate of Registry de novo, for any such Ship or Vessel: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England, or any Four or more of them, and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in Scotland, or any Three or more of them respectively, if Application shall be made to the said Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively, and for the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief, for the Time being, of the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey, or of any Colony, Plantation, Island, or Territory, to His Majesty belonging, if such Application shall be made to any of them respectively, upon due Consideration of the particular Circumstances of the Case, to give Direction for registering such Ship or Vessel de novo, and granting a Certificate of such Registry, notwithstanding such Bill or other Instrument of Sale shall not have been produced as aforesaid, and such Registry shall be made, and such Certificate thereof shall be granted accordingly: Provided always, that all the other Regulations required by the Laws in force concerning the Registry de novo of Ships and Vessels be complied with.

but the Commissioners of the Customs, &c. may give Directions for the Registry.

7 and 8 Gul. 3, c. 22.

XXI. And whereas, by an Act, passed in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Third, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and regulating Abuses in the Plantation Trade, it is, amongst other Things enacted, That in case there be any Alteration of Property in the same Port, by the Sale of One or more Shares in any Ship, after registering thereof, such Sale shall always be acknowledged by Indorsement on the Certificate of the Register before Two Witnesses, in order to prove that the entire Property in such Ship remains to some of the Subjects of England: And whereas it is expedient to authorize and require the proper Officers impowered to register Ships and Vessels, and to grant Certificates thereof, to issue Registers de novo in any Case where Part of the Property of any Ship or Vessel shall be so transferred, if the Owners or Proprietors of such Ship or Vessel, who were Owners thereof at the Time such Ship or Vessel was last registered, or whose Property therein has not been so transferred, shall be desirous of having a Certificate of Registry de novo, instead of the Indorsement on the old Register, as now required: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case there shall be any Alteration of Property in the same Port, by the Sale of One or more Shares in any Ship or Vessel, after registering thereof, and the Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors of such Ship or Vessel, who were Owners or Proprietors thereof at the Time such Ship or Vessel was last registered, or whose Property therein has not been so transferred, shall be desirous of having the Ship or Vessel registered de novo, it shall and may be lawful to and for the proper Officers impowered to register Ships and Vessels, and to grant Certificates thereof, and such Officers are hereby authorized and required to register every such Ship or Vessel de novo, provided all the Rules, Regulations, and Conditions of the before recited Act, passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and of all other Laws in force concerning the Registry of Ships and Vessels de novo, be complied with.

On Alteration of Property in Vessels in the same Port, they may be registered de novo.

XXII. And whereas British Ships or Vessels, the Property of which is in Whole or in Part transferred to Persons not being Subjects of His Majesty, are not entitled to the Privileges of British Ships and Vessels; and to prevent Frauds in the Employment of such Ships or Vessels as British Ships or Vessels, contrary to the Intention of the Laws of Navigation, they are now by Law required, in certain Cases, to be registered de novo; for which Purpose it is necessary that such Ship or Vessel should proceed, with all due Diligence, to the Port to which she belongs, or to any other Port in which she may be legally registered, by virtue of the said Act, passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, in order to be registered de novo; be it enacted, That, from and after the First Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, as often as any such Transfer of Property in any Ship or Vessel shall be made, while such Ship or Vessel is upon the Sea, on a Voyage to a Foreign Port or Ports, in case the Master of such Ship or Vessel is privy to such Transfer, or, in case he is not so privy, as soon as he shall become acquainted therewith, such Ship or Vessel shall proceed directly to the Port or Ports for which the Cargo then on board is destined, and shall sail from such Port or Ports, to which the Cargo then on board is destined, to the Port of His Majesty's Dominions to which she belongs, or to any other such Port in which she may be legally registered by virtue of the said Act, and such Ship or Vessel may take on board, in the Port or Ports for which her original Cargo was destined, or in any other Port or Ports, being in the Course of her Voyage to the Port of His Majesty's Dominions in which she may be so registered de novo, such Cargo, and no other, as shall be destined and may be legally carried to such Port of His Majesty's Dominions, where she may be so registered de novo; and if such Transfer of Property shall be made while such Ship or Vessel is in any Foreign Port, and the Master of such Ship or Vessel is privy to such Transfer, or, in case he is not so privy, as soon as he shall become acquainted therewith, such Ship or Vessel, after having delivered the Cargo then on board such Ship or Vessel at the Port or Ports for which it is destined, shall sail from such Port or Ports to the Port of His Majesty's Dominions to which she belongs, or to any other such Port in which she may be legally registered by virtue of the said Act, and may take on board, at the Port or Ports for which her original Cargo was so destined, or at any other Port, being in the Course of her Voyage to the Port of His Majesty's Dominions in which she may be so registered de novo, such Cargo, and no other, as shall be destined, and may be legally carried to such Port of His Majesty's Dominions, where she may be so registered de novo; and if such Transfer of Property shall be made while such Ship or Vessel is on a Fishing Voyage, and the Master of such Ship or Vessel is privy to such Transfer, or in case he is not so privy, as soon as he shall become acquainted therewith, such Ship or Vessel, after having finished such Fishing Voyage, without touching at any Foreign Port or Ports, except for the Purpose of Repairs or Refreshments, or for delivering any Part of the Cargo she may have on board destined for such Foreign Port or Ports, shall sail to the Port of His Majesty's Dominions to which she belongs, or to any other such Port where she may be legally registered by virtue of the said Act and may take on board, at the Foreign Port or Ports last described, or at any other Port or Ports, being in the Course of her Voyage to the Port of His Majesty's Dominions where she may be so registered de novo, such Cargo and no other, as shall be destined and may be legally carried to such Port of His Majesty's Dominions, and every such Ship or Vessel as aforesaid shall be registered de novo as soon as she returns to the Port of His Majesty's Dominions to which she belongs, or to any other such Port in which she may be legally registered by virtue of the said Act; on Failure whereof such Ship or Vessel shall, to all Intents and Purposes, be from thenceforth considered, and deemed and taken to be a foreign Ship or Vessel, and shall not again be registered, and be entitled to the Privileges of a British Ship or Vessel, unless upon special Representation of the Circumstances of the Case to Four or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England, or to Three or more of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in Scotland, or to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief for the Time being, of the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey, or of any Colony, Plantation, Island, or Territory, to His Majesty belonging, as the Case may be, the said Commissioners, Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Commander in Chief, shall respectively, on Consideration of the special Circumstances of the Case, think fit to order; and in such Case, they are hereby authorized to order that the said Ship or Vessel shall be registered, and be thereby again entitled to the Privileges of a British Ship or Vessel, and such Registry shall be made, and such Certificate thereof shall be granted accordingly: Provided always, that all the Regulations required by the Laws in force, concerning the First Registry of Ships and Vessels, shall in every such Case be complied with: Provided nevertheless, that in no Case of the Transfer of Property, in Whole or in Part, of any Ship or Vessel, in the Manner herein-before mentioned, the Ship or Vessel of which the Property is so transferred, shall be registered de novo, or be entitled to the Privileges of a British Ship or Vessel, unless such Ship or Vessel shall return to the Port of His Majesty's Dominions to which she belongs, or to such other Port in

From March 1, 1795, on Transfer of Property to Persons not Subjects of His Majesty, Masters of Vessels to act as herein directed;

That the Succession to the Crown shall continue limited and settled as at present.

ARTICLE THIRD.

That it be the Third Article of Union, that the said United Kingdom be represented in One and the same Parliament, to be stiled The Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

That such Act as shall be passed in Ireland to regulate the Mode of summoning and returning the Lords and Commoners to serve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, shall be considered as Part of the Treaty of Union.

That such Act as shall be passed in the Parliament of Ireland previous to the Union, to regulate the Mode by which the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, to serve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Ireland, shall be summoned and returned to the said Parliament, shall be considered as forming Part of the Treaty of Union, and shall be incorporated in the Acts of the respective Parliaments by which the said Union shall be ratified and established:

That all Questions touching the Rotation or Election of Lords of Ireland to sit in the United Parliament shall be decided by the House of Lords thereof.

That all Questions touching the Rotation or Election of Lords Spiritual or Temporal of Ireland to sit in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, shall be decided by the House of Lords thereof; and whenever, by reason of an Equality of Votes in the Election of any such Lords Temporal, a complete Election shall not be made according to the true Intent of this Article, the Names of those Peers for whom such Equality of Votes shall be so given, shall be written on Pieces of Paper of a similar Form, and shall be put into a Glass, by the Clerk of the Parliaments at the Table of the House of Lords whilst the House is sitting; and the Peer or Peers whose Name or Names shall be first drawn out by the Clerk of the Parliaments, shall be deemed the Peer or Peers elected as the Case may be:

His Majesty may create Peers, and make Promotions in the Peerage of Ireland after the Union, under certain Regulations.

That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to create Peers of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and to make Promotions in the Peerage thereof, after the Union; provided that no new Creation of any such Peers shall take place after the Union until Three of the Peerages of Ireland, which shall have been existing at the Time of the Union, shall have become extinct; and upon such Extinction of Three Peerages, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to create One Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland; and in like Manner so often as Three Peerages of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland shall become extinct, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to create one other Peer of the said Part of the United Kingdom; and if it shall happen that the Peers of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland shall, by Extinction of Peerages or otherwise, be reduced to the Number of One hundred, exclusive of all such Peers of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, as shall hold any Peerage of Great Britain subsisting at the Time of the Union, or of the United Kingdom created since the Union, by which such Peers shall be entitled to an Hereditary Seat in the House of Lords of the United Kingdom, then and in that Case it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to create One Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland as often as any One of such One hundred Peerages shall fail by Extinction, or as often as any One Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland shall become entitled, by Descent or Creation, to an Hereditary Seat in the House of Lords of the United Kingdom; it being the true Intent and Meaning of this Article, that at all Times after the Union it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to keep up the Peerage of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland to the Number of One hundred, over and above the Number of such of the said Peers as shall be entitled by Descent or Creation to an Hereditary Seat in the House of Lords of the United Kingdom:

to be deemed extinct but on Default of Claim for a Year after the Death of the last Possessor,

If a Claim be after that Period made and allowed, and a new Creation shall have taken place in the Interval, no new Right of Creation shall accrue to His Majesty on the next Extinction of a Peerage.

That all Questions touching the Election of Members to sit on the Part of Ireland in the House of Commons of the United Kingdom shall be heard and decided in the same Manner as Questions touching such Elections in Great Britain now are or at any Time hereafter shall by Law be heard and decided; subject nevertheless to such particular Regulations in respect of Ireland as, from local Circumstances, the Parliament of the United Kingdom may from Time to Time deem expedient:

Questions touching the Election of Members to sit in the House of Commons of the United Kingdom on the Part of Ireland shall be decided as Questions touching such Elections in Great Britain;

That the Qualifications in respect of Property of the Members elected on the Part of Ireland to sit in the House of Commons of the United Kingdom, shall be respectively the same as are now provided by Law in the Cases of Elections for Counties and Cities and Boroughs respectively in that Part of Great Britain called England, unless any other Provision shall hereafter be made in that Respect by Act of Parliament of the United Kingdom.

and their Qualifications in respect of Property shall be the same as in England.

When His Majesty shall declare His Pleasure for holding a Parliament of the United Kingdom, a Proclamation shall issue to cause the Lords and Commons, who are to serve on the Part of Ireland, to be returned as shall be provided by any Act of the present Session in Ireland.

That if His Majesty, on or before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and one, on which Day the Union is to take place, shall declare under the Great Seal of Great Britain, that it is expedient that the Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great-Britain should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain; then the said Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain shall accordingly be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain; and they, together with the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons so summoned and returned as above on the Part of Ireland, shall be the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom; and such First Parliament may (in that Case) if not sooner dissolved, continue to sit so long as the present Parliament of Great Britain may now by Law continue to sit, if not sooner dissolved: Provided always, that until an Act shall have passed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, providing in what Cases Persons holding Offices or Places of Profit under the Crown in Ireland, shall be incapable of being Members of the House of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, no greater Number of Members than Twenty, holding such Offices or Places as aforesaid, shall be capable of sitting in the said House of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom; and if such a Number of Members shall be returned to serve in the said House as to make the whole Number of Members of the said House holding such Offices or Places as aforesaid more than Twenty, then and in such Case the Seats or Places of such Members as shall have last accepted such Offices or Places shall be vacated at the Option of such Members, so as to reduce the Number of Members holding such Offices or Places to the Number of Twenty; and no Person holding any such Office or Place shall be capable of being elected or of sitting in the said House, while there are Twenty Persons holding such Offices or Places sitting in the said House; and that every One of the Lords of Parliament of the United Kingdom, and every Member of the House of Commons of the United Kingdom, in the First and all succeeding Parliaments, shall until the Parliament of the United Kingdom shall otherwise provide, take the Oaths, and

If His Majesty, on or before Jan. 1, 1801, shall declare it is expedient that the present Parliament of Great Britain should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain, they and the Lords and Commons returned on the Part of Ireland may continue to sit so long as the present Parliament of Great Britain may; but until an Act shall have passed in the United Parliament, providing in what Cases Persons holding Offices of Profit under the Crown, in Ireland, shall be incapable of sitting in the House of Commons of the United Kingdom, no more than 20 shall sit therein; and if more than that Number be returned, the Seats or Places of such as shall have accepted such Offices shall be vacated so as to reduce them to 20. ARTICLE SEVENTH.

The Interest and the Sinking Fund for Reduction of the Debt of either Kingdom, shall continue to be defrayed separately.

That it be the Seventh Article of Union, that the Charge arising from the Payment of the Interest, and the Sinking Fund for the Reduction of the Principal, of the Debt incurred in either Kingdom before the Union, shall continue to be separately defrayed by Great Britain and Ireland respectively, except as herein-after provided:

The Expenditure of the United Kingdom to be defrayed and provided for as herein specified.

That for the Space of Twenty Years after the Union shall take place, the Contribution of Great Britain and Ireland respectively, towards the Expenditure of the United Kingdom in each Year, shall be defrayed in the Proportion of Fifteen Parts for Great Britain and Two Parts for Ireland; and that at the Expiration of the said Twenty Years, the future Expenditure of the United Kingdom (other than the Interest and Charges of the Debt to which either Country shall be separately liable) shall be defrayed in such Proportion as the Parliament of the United Kingdom shall deem just and reasonable upon a Comparison of the real Value of the Exports and Imports of the respective Countries, upon an Average of the Three Years next preceding the Period of Revision; or on a Comparison of the Value of the Quantities of the following Articles consumed within the respective Countries, on a similar Average; videlicet, Beer, Spirits, Sugar, Wine, Tea, Tobacco, and Malt; or according to the Aggregate Proportion resulting from both these Considerations combined; or on a Comparison of the Amount of Income in each Country, estimated from the Produce for the same Period of a general Tax, if such shall have been imposed on the same Descriptions of Income in both Countries; and that the Parliament of the United Kingdom shall afterwards proceed in like Manner to revise and fix the said Proportions according to the same Rules, or any of them, at Periods not more distant than Twenty Years, nor less than Seven Years from each other; unless previous to any such Period, the Parliament of the United Kingdom shall have declared, as herein-after provided, that the Expenditure of the United Kingdom shall be defrayed indiscriminately, by equal Taxes imposed on the like Articles in both Countries: That, for the defraying the said Expenditure according to the Rules above laid down, the Revenues of Ireland shall hereafter constitute a Consolidated Fund, which shall be charged, in the First Instance, with the Interest of the Debt of Ireland, and with the Sinking Fund applicable to the Reduction of the said Debt, and the Remainder shall be applied towards defraying the Proportion of the Expenditure of the United Kingdom, to which Ireland may be liable in each Year: That the Proportion of Contribution to which Great Britain and Ireland will be liable, shall be raised by such Taxes in each Country respectively, as the Parliament of the United Kingdom shall from Time to Time deem fit: Provided always, that in regulating the Taxes in each Country, by which their respective Proportions shall be levied, no Article in Ireland shall be made liable to any new or additional Duty, by which the whole Amount of Duty payable thereon would exceed the Amount which will be thereafter payable in England on the like Article: That, if at the End of any Year any Surplus shall accrue from the Revenues of Ireland, after defraying the Interest, Sinking Fund, and proportional Contribution and separate Charges to which the said Country shall then be liable, Taxes shall be taken off to the Amount of such Surplus, or the Surplus shall be applied by the Parliament of the United Kingdom to local Purposes in Ireland, or to make good any Deficiency which may arise in the Revenues of Ireland in Time of Peace, or be invested, by the Commissioners of the National Debt of Ireland, in the Funds, to accumulate for the Benefit of Ireland at Compound Interest, in case of the Contribution of Ireland in Time of War; provided that the Surplus so to accumulate shall at no future Period be suffered to exceed the Sum of Five Millions: That all Monies to be raised after the Union, by Loan, in Peace or War, for the Service of the United Kingdom by the Parliament thereof, shall be considered to be a Joint Debt, and the Charges thereof shall be borne by the respective Countries in the Proportion of their respective Contributions; provided that, if at any Time, in raising their respective Contributions hereby fixed for each Country, the Parliament of the United Kingdom shall judge it fit to raise a greater Proportion of such respective Contributions in One Country within the Year than in the other, or to set apart a greater Proportion of Sinking Fund for the Liquidation of the Whole or any Part of the Loan raised on account of the One Country than of that raised on account of the other Country, then such Part of the said Loan, for the Liquidation of which different Provisions shall have been made for the respective Countries, shall be kept distinct, and shall be borne by each separately, and only that Part of the said Loan be deemed Joint and Common, for the Reduction of which the respective Countries shall have made Provision in the Proportion of their respective Contributions: That, if at any future Day the separate Debt of each Country respectively shall have been liquidated, or, if the Values of their respective Debts (estimated according to the Amount of the Interest and Annuities attending the same, and of the Sinking Fund applicable to the Reduction thereof, and to the Period within which the whole Capital of such Debt shall appear to be redeemable by such Sinking Fund) shall be to each other in the same Proportion with the respective Contributions of each Country respectively; or if the Amount by which the Value of the larger of such Debts shall vary from such Proportion, shall not exceed One hundredth Part of the said Value; and if it shall appear to the Parliament of the United Kingdom, that the respective Circumstances of the Two Countries will thenceforth admit of their contributing indiscriminately, by equal Taxes imposed on the same Articles in each, to the future Expenditure of the United Kingdom, it shall be competent to the Parliament of the United Kingdom to declare, that all future Expence thenceforth to be incurred, together with the Interest and Charges of all Joint Debts contracted previous to such Declaration, shall be so defrayed indiscriminately by equal Taxes imposed on the same Articles in each Country, and thenceforth from Time to Time, as Circumstances may require, to impose and apply such Taxes accordingly, subject only to such particular Exemptions or Abatements in Ireland, and in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, as Circumstances may appear from Time to Time to demand: That, from the Period of such Declaration, it shall no longer be necessary to regulate the Contribution of the Two Countries towards the future Expenditure of the United Kingdom, according to any specifick Proportion, or according to any of the Rules herein-before prescribed; provided nevertheless, that the Interest or Charges which may remain on account of any Part of the separate Debt with which either Country shall be chargeable, and which shall not be liquidated or consolidated proportionably as above, shall, until extinguished, continue to be defrayed by separate Taxes in each Country: That a Sum not less than the Sum which has been granted by the Parliament of Ireland on the Average of Six Years immediately preceding the First Day of January in the Year One thousand eight hundred, in Premiums for the internal Encouragement of Agriculture or Manufactures, or for the maintaining Institutions for pious and charitable Purposes, shall be applied, for the Period of Twenty Years after the Union, to such local Purposes in Ireland, in such Manner as the Parliament of the United Kingdom shall direct: That, from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and one, all publick Revenue arising to the United Kingdom from the territorial Dependencies thereof, and applied to the general Expenditure of the United Kingdom, shall be so applied in the Proportions of the respective Contributions of the Two Countries.

ARTICLE EIGHTH.

That it be the Eighth Article of Union, That all Laws in force at the Time of the Union, and all the Courts of Civil and Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction within the respective Kingdoms, shall remain as now by Law established within the same, subject only to such Alterations and Regulations from Time to Time as Circumstances may appear to the Parliament of the United Kingdom to require; provided that all Writs of Error and Appeals, depending at the Time of the Union or hereafter to be brought, and which might now be finally decided by the House of Lords of either Kingdom, shall, from and after the Union be finally decided by the House of Lords, of the United Kingdom; and provided, that, from and after the Union, there shall remain in Ireland an Instance Court of Admiralty, for the Determination of Causes, Civil and Maritime only, and that the Appeal from Sentences of the said Court shall be to His Majesty's Delegates in His Court of Chancery in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland; and that all Laws at present in Force in either Kingdom, which shall be contrary to any of the Provisions which may be enacted by any Act for carrying these Articles into Effect, be from and after the Union repealed.

All Laws in force at the Union, and all Courts of Jurisdiction within the respective Kingdoms, shall remain, subject to such Alteration, as may appear proper to the United Parliament.

All Appeals to be finally decided by the Peers of the United Kingdom.

There shall remain in Ireland a Court of Admiralty, and Appeals therefrom shall be to the Delegates in Chancery there. All Laws contrary to the Provisions enacted for carrying these Articles into Effect to be repealed.

and One Part of the said Writs and Returns so filled up, subscribed and sealed as above, shall remain of Record in the Crown Office of Ireland, and the other Part shall be certified by the Clerk of the Crown to the Clerk of the Parliament of the United Kingdom; and no Peer of Ireland, except such as shall have been elected as Representative Peers on the Part of Ireland in the House of Lords of the United Kingdom, and shall there have taken the Oaths, and signed the Declaration prescribed by Law, shall under pain of suffering such Punishment as the House of Lords of the United Kingdom may award and adjudge, make a Return to such Writ, unless he shall, after the issuing thereof, and before the Day on which the Writ is returnable, have taken the Oaths and signed the Declaration which are or shall be by Law required to be taken and signed by the Lords of the United Kingdom, before they can sit and vote in the Parliament thereof; which Oaths and Declarations shall be either taken and subscribed in the Court of Chancery of Ireland, or before One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, a Certificate whereof, signed by such Justices of the Peace, or by the Register of the said Court of Chancery, shall be transmitted by such Peer with the Return, and shall be annexed to that Part thereof remaining of Record in the Crown Office of Ireland; And be it enacted, That in case any Lord Spiritual, being a Temporal Peer of the United Kingdom, or being a Temporal Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, shall be chosen by the Lords Temporal to be one of the Representatives of the Lords Temporal, in every such Case, during the Life of such Spiritual Peer being a Temporal Peer of the United Kingdom, or being a Temporal Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, so chosen to represent the Lords Temporal, the Rotation of Representation of the Spiritual Lords shall proceed to the next Spiritual Lord, without Regard to such Spiritual Lord so chosen a Temporal Peer, that is to say, if such Spiritual Lord shall be an Archbishop, then the Rotation shall proceed to the Archbishop whose See is next in Rotation, and if such Spiritual Lord shall be a suffragan Bishop, then the Rotation shall proceed to the suffragan Bishop whose See is next in Rotation. And whereas by the said Fourth Article of Union it is agreed, that, if His Majesty shall, on or before the First Day of January next, declare, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, that it is expedient that the Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain should be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain, then the Lords and Commons of the present Parliament of Great Britain shall accordingly be the Members of the respective Houses of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain; be it enacted, for and in that Case only, That the present Members of the Thirty-two Counties of Ireland, and the Two Members for the City of Dublin, and the Two Members for the City of Cork, shall be, and they are hereby declared to be, by virtue of this Act, Members for the said Counties and Cities in the First Parliament of the United Kingdom; and that on a Day and Hour to be appointed by His Majesty under the Great Seal of Ireland, previous to the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and one, the Members then serving for the College of the Holy Trinity of Dublin, and for each of the following Cities or Boroughs, that is to say, the City of Waterford, City of Limerick, Borough of Belfast, County and Town of Drogheda, County and Town of Carrickfergus, Borough of Newry, City of Kilkenny, City of Londonderry, Town of Galway, Borough of Clonmell, Town of Wexford, Town of Youghall, Town of Bandon-Bridge, Borough of Armagh, Borough of Dundalk, Town of Kinsale, Borough of Lisburne, Borough of Sligo, Borough of Catherlough, Borough of Ennis, Borough of Dungarvan, Borough of Downpatrick, Borough of Colerain, Town of Mallow, Borough of Athlone, Town of New Ross, Borough of Tralee, City of Cashel, Borough of Dungannon, Borough of Portarlington, and Borough of Enniskillen, or any Five or more of them, shall meet in the now usual Place of Meeting of the House of Commons of Ireland, and the Names of the Members then serving for the said Places and Boroughs, shall be written on separate Pieces of Paper, and the said Papers being folded up, shall be placed in a Glass or Glasses, and shall successively be drawn thereout by the Clerk of the Crown, or his Deputy, who shall then and there attend for that Purpose; and the First drawn Name of a Member of each of the aforesaid Places or Boroughs shall be taken as the Name of the Member to serve for the said Place or Borough in the First Parliament of the United Kingdom; and a Return of the said Names shall be made by the Clerk of the Crown or his Deputy, to the House of Commons, of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom, and a Certificate thereof shall be given respectively by the said Clerk of the Crown, or his Deputy, to each of the Members whose Names shall have been so drawn: Provided always, that it may be allowed to any Member of any of the said Places or Boroughs, by personal Application, to be then and there made by him to the Clerk of the Crown, or his Deputy, or by Declaration in Writing under his Hand, to be transmitted by him to the Clerk of the Crown previous to the said Day so appointed as above, to withdraw his Name previous to the drawing of the Names by Lot; in which Case, or in that of a Vacancy by Death or otherwise of One of the Members of any of the said Places or Boroughs, at the Time of so drawing the Names, the Name of the other Member shall be returned as aforesaid as the Name of the Member to serve for such Place in the First Parliament of the United Kingdom; or if both Members for any such Place or Borough shall so withdraw their Names, or if there shall be a Vacancy of both Members at the Time aforesaid, the Clerk of the Crown shall certify the same to the House of Commons of the First Parliament of the United Kingdom, and shall also express, in such Return, whether any Writ shall then have issued for the Election of a Member or Members to supply such Vacancy; and if a Writ shall so have issued for the Election of One Member only, such Writ shall be superseded, and any Election to be thereafter made thereupon shall be null and of no Effect; and if such Writ shall have issued for the Election of Two Members, the said Two Members shall be chosen accordingly, and their Names being returned by the Clerk of the Crown to the House of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, One of the said Names shall then be drawn, by Lot, in such Manner and Time as the said House of Commons shall direct; and the Person whose Name shall be so drawn, shall be deemed to be the Member to sit for such Place in the First Parliament of the United Kingdom; but if, at the Time aforesaid, no Writ shall have issued to supply such Vacancy, none shall thereafter issue until the same be ordered by Resolution of the House of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, as in the Case of any other Vacancy of a Seat in the House of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom. And be it enacted, that whenever His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, shall, by Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, summon a new Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Chancellor, Keeper, or Commissioners of the Great Seal of Ireland, shall cause Writs to be issued to the several Counties, Cities, the College of the Holy Trinity of Dublin, and Boroughs in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, specified in this Act, for the Election of Members to serve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, according to the Numbers hereinbefore set forth; and whenever any Vacancy of a Seat in the House of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, for any of the said Counties, Cities, or Boroughs, or for the said College of the Holy Trinity of Dublin, shall arise, by Death or otherwise, the Chancellor, Keeper, or Commissioners of the Great Seal, upon such Vacancy being certified to them respectively, by the proper Warrant, shall forthwith cause a Writ to issue for the Election of a Person to fill up such Vacancy; and such Writs and the Returns thereon, respectively being returned into the Crown Office in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, shall from thence be transmitted to the Crown Office in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, and be certified to the House of Commons in the same Manner as the like Returns have been usually or shall hereafter be certified; and Copies of the said Writs and Returns, attested by the Chancellor, Keeper, or Commissioners of the Great Seal of Ireland, for the Time being, shall be preserved in the Crown Office of Ireland, and shall be Evidence of such Writs and Returns, in case the original Writs and Returns shall be lost;' be it enacted,

That

Recited Act to be taken as a Part of this Act.

That the said Act, so herein recited, be taken as a Part of this Act, and be deemed to all Intents and Purposes incorporated within the same.

Recited Provisions repealed.

Persons wilfully casting away, &c. Vessels, shall suffer Death.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the Sixteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, wilfully cast away, burn, or otherwise destroy, any Ship or Vessel, or in anywise counsel, direct, or procure the same to be done, and the same be accordingly done with Intent or Design thereby wilfully and maliciously to prejudice any Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, or any Owner or Owners of any Goods loaden on board the same, or any Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate, that hath or have underwritten or shall underwrite any Policy or Policies of Insurance upon such Ship or Vessel, or on the Freight thereof, or upon any Goods loaden on board the same, the Person or Persons offending therein being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be deemed and adjudged a principal Felon or Felons, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

Where such Offences committed within the Body of any County, or on the High Seas, may be tried.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any such Ship or Vessel shall, from and after the Sixteenth Day of July in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, be wilfully cast away, burnt or otherwise destroyed, within the Body of any County of this Realm, that then the said several Offences, as well in wilfully casting away, burning, or otherwise destroying such Ship or Vessel, as in counselling, directing, or procuring the same to be done as aforesaid, shall and may be respectively inquired of, tried, determined, and adjudged, in the same Courts, and in such Manner and Form as Felonies done within the Body of any County, by the Laws of this Realm now are, to be, or by virtue of this Act hereafter may be, inquired of, tried, determined, and adjudged; and if any such Ship or Vessel shall be wilfully cast away, burnt, or otherwise destroyed, on the High Seas, then that the said several Offences, as well in wilfully casting away, burning, or otherwise destroying any such Ship or Vessel, as in counselling, directing, and procuring the same to be done as aforesaid, shall and may be respectively inquired of, tried, determined, and adjudged, before such Court, and in such Manner and Form as in and by an Act made in the Eight-and-twentieth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, intituled, For Pirates, is appointed and directed for the inquiring, trying, determining, and adjudging, of Felonies upon the High Seas.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to bar or defeat any Prosecution already commenced or hereafter to be commenced for any Offence or Offences already committed, or which shall be committed, against the said Provisions of the said Two several herein, in Part, recited Acts, or either of them, before the said Sixteenth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and three, but that such Prosecutions may be commenced and proceeded in respectively, as if the said Provisions of the said Acts had not been repealed.

Where Accessaries before the Fact may be tried.

V. And whereas it is convenient that Accessaries to Felonies committed within the Body of any County within the Realm, should be by Law liable to be tried, as well in the County wherein the principal Felony was committed as in the County in which they so became Accessaries, and also that Accessaries to Felonies committed upon the High Seas should be by Law liable to be tried by such Court, and in such Manner as by the Act made in the Eight-and-twentieth Year of the Reign of the late King Henry the Eighth, is directed in respect to Felonies done upon the High Seas; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Sixteenth Day of July in the said Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and three, in all Cases whatsoever in which any Person or Persons shall hereafter procure, direct, counsel or command any other Person or Persons to commit, or shall abet any other Person or Persons in committing any Felony whatsoever, or shall in anywise whatsoever become an Accessary or Accessaries before the Fact to any Felony whatsoever, whether such principal Felony be committed within the Body of any County within this Realm, or upon the High Seas, and whether such procuring, directing, counselling, commanding, and abetting, or otherwise becoming Accessary or Accessaries before the Fact shall have been committed or done within the Body of any County within this Realm, or upon the High Seas, that then and in all such Cases, the Offence of the Person or Persons so procuring, directing, counselling, commanding, or abetting such Felony, or so in anywise becoming Accessary or Accessaries before the Fact to such Felony, shall and may be inquired of, tried, determined, and adjudged, in case such principal Felony shall have been committed within the Body of any County within this Realm, by the Course of the Common Law, either within such County wherein the said principal Felony shall have been committed, or within the County wherein the said Offence in procuring, directing, counselling, commanding, and abetting, or otherwise becoming Accessary or Accessaries before the Fact shall have been committed or done; and in case the said principal Felony shall have been committed upon the High Seas, then the said Offence in procuring, directing, counselling, commanding, or abetting such Felony, or of so becoming an Accessary or Accessaries before the Fact to the same, shall and may be inquired of in and by such Court, and in such Manner and Form as in and by the said Act, made in the Eight-and-twentieth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, is appointed and directed for the trying, determining, and adjudging, of Felonies done upon the High Seas: Provided always, that no Person or

No Person so tried, shall be liable to be again tried for the same Offence in any Court.

Persons who shall hereafter be Once tried and acquitted, or convicted of any such Offence, in procuring, directing, counselling, commanding, or abetting, any Felony, or of otherwise becoming an Accessary or Accessaries before the Fact to such Felony, whether the Trial of such Person or Persons shall have been had according to the Course of the Common Law, as in the Case of a Felony committed within the Body of any County in this Realm, or according to the Provisions contained in the Statute made in the Eight-and-twentieth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, as in the Case of a Felony committed on the High Seas, shall be liable to be again indicted, prosecuted, or tried, for the same Offence, in any Court or Jurisdiction whatsoever.

33 Hen 8. recited, and the Powers therein contained respecting Murder, &c. shall be extended to Accessaries before the Fact to Murder and to Manslaughter.

VI. And whereas by an Act, made and passed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, intituled, An Act to proceed by Commission of Oyer and Terminer, against such Persons as shall confess Treason, et cetera, without remanding the same to be tried in the Shire where the Offence was committed; certain Powers, Authorities, Provisions, and Regulations are given and enacted for making Commissions of Oyer and Terminer, for the speedy Trial, Conviction, or Delivery of Persons examined before the King's Council, or Three of them, upon any Murders or other Offences therein mentioned, and for inquiring of, hearing, and determining such Murders and other Offences, under such Circumstances, and in ſuch Cases, as in the said Act are mentioned; which said Act, so far as the same relates to the Crime of Murder, is still in force and unrepealed; but no Provision is therein made for the Trial of Accessaries before the Fact in Murder, or for the Trial of the Offence of Manslaughter, either upon Indictments for that Offence, or for the Crime of Murder, under any Commission to be made or issued in pursuance of the same Act, whereby Persons guilty of those Offences, and more particularly when such Murders or Manslaughters happen to be committed out of the Realm, and not upon the High Seas, may frequently escape Punishment, to the Encouragement and evil Example of evil Doers, be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from henceforth all and singular the Powers and Authorities in the said last recited Act contained respecting the Offence of Murder; and the Examination of any Person or Persons upon any Murders by the King's Council, or Three of them; and the making or issuing of Commissions of Oyer and Terminer for the Trial, Conviction, or Delivery of Offenders; and the inquiring, hearing, and determining of all such Murders in manner therein mentioned, and all other the Clauses, Provisoes, Conditions and Declarations concerning the Offence of Murder; and the inquiring, hearing, and Determination thereof; and the Trial, Conviction or Delivery of such Offenders therein, as in the same Act are mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby extended to the Offence of procuring, directing, counselling, commanding, or otherwise becoming an Accessary or Accessaries before the Fact to any Murder or Murders; and also to the Offence of Manslaughter, in like Manner as if those Offences had been expressly mentioned in the said last recited Act; and in case any Offender or Offenders shall, in pursuance of this or the said recited Act, be indicted for the Offence of Murder, and upon such Trial it shall appear that the Person or Persons, or any of them, so indicted and tried is or are guilty of Manslaughter, and of no greater Offence, the Jury may on such Indictment find the Party or Parties guilty of Manslaughter only; or in case of Doubt or Difficulty, may find a Special Verdict, upon which there shall be the like Proceedings, Judgement, and Punishment, or Execution, as if the Offence had been committed within the Body of any County within this Realm, and such Trial had been had, and such General or Special Verdict had been found upon an Indictment for Murder, found and tried according to the Course of the Common Law by a Jury of the same County within which the Offence was committed.

If on the Trial of any Offender for Murder, it shall appear he is guilty of Manslaughter only, the Jury may find accordingly, or a Special Verdict.

V. And

Tobacco and Snuff subject to the Regulations of 29 Geo 3. c. 68. and 31 Geo. 3. c. 47., &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That Tobacco and Snuff of all Sorts taken as Prize, and brought into any Port of Great Britain, not being a Port enumerated in an Act, passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof; and in another Act, passed in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to prevent other Ships than those laden with Tobacco from mooring and discharging their Lading at the Places appointed by an Act, made in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof;' to prohibit the Exportation of damaged or mean Tobacco; and for permitting the Importation of Tobacco and Snuff into the Port of Newcastle upon Tyne, shall be removed according to the Provisions of the said Act of the Twenty-ninth Year of His present Majesty, as soon as may be, under the usual Coast Dispatches and Securities, to some One of the Ports enumerated in the said Acts; and that such Tobacco and Snuff, brought into any Port enumerated in the said Acts, shall, on Condemnation as Prize, be warehoused in His Majesty's Tobacco Warehouse at such Port, and be subject and liable to Warehouse Rent, at the Rate of One Penny Halfpenny per Week for every Hogshead, or other Package; and such Tobacco and Snuff may be exported from such Warehouse, without Payment of any Duty, or may be taken out of such Warehouse for Home Consumption or Manufacture, on Payment of the Duties due and payable on Tobacco and Snuff of the Growth or Production of His Majesty's Colonies, Plantations, Islands, or Territories in America; and such Tobacco and Snuff, so warehoused, shall be subject and liable to the Rules, Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures, as are provided and enacted with respect to warehoused Tobacco and Snuff in the said Act, passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and in an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to explain and amend an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, 'An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof,' and also in the said recited Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty.

VIII. And whereas Goods of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of China or the East Indies, taken as Prize, may, during Hostilities, be carried into some of the Out Ports of Great Britain and condemned; in order that the Duties due thereon may be properly ascertained, be it further enacted, That in all Cases where such Goods shall be carried into any Out Port of Great Britain, and condemned as Prize, Bond, with sufficient Security, shall be given to His Majesty, in Treble the Value of such Goods, that the same shall be brought to London, and delivered to the proper Warehouse Keeper at the Customs in the Port of London, to be deposited by him in Warehouses provided at the Expence of the Captors or their Agents, and approved of by the Commissioners of the Customs, or any Four or more of them; and with further Condition to procure a Certificate from such Warehouse Keeper, within Three Months from the Date of such Bond, that the Goods have been delivered accordingly, which Security the Collector and Comptroller, or other Principal Officer of the Customs at the Port from whence such Goods are to be removed, are hereby authorized and empowered to take, and to cancel and discharge such Bond, upon receiving the Certificate from the Warehouse Keeper as herein before directed; and if such Goods shall be sent by Land Carriage they shall be removed under the Seals of Office of such Collector and Comptroller or Principal Officer of the Customs, and shall be accompanied with a Transire, expressing the Number and Marks of the Packages; and all such Goods so removed, either by Land or Water, shall afterwards be publickly exposed to Sale in the City of London, by the Captors or their Agents, they giving Notice of such Sale to the proper Officers of the Customs or Excise respectively concerned therein, and under the same Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, in all Respects, and subject to such Duties as are or may be payable upon the like Goods, when imported by and sold at the Sales of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and the Duties due by Law thereon shall be accordingly paid and applied; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Foreign Vessels (except Ships of War), condemned as Prize without Great Britain, shall pay the Duty on their first Arrival, &c.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted, That where any Foreign Ship or Vessel (not being a Ship of War or a private Ship or Vessel of War) hath been or shall hereafter be taken during Hostilities, and condemned as Prize, in any of His Majesty's Dominions out of Great Britain, the Duty due and payable by Law for such Ship or Vessel shall be paid, upon her first Arrival at any Port in Great Britain, to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at such Port, by the Master, Owner, or Consignee, of such Ship or Vessel, whether the same shall or shall not have been sold by the Captors after Condemnation, and that no Foreign-built Ship or Vessel so condemned shall enjoy or be entitled to the Privilege of a British-built Ship or Vessel, until such Duty is paid for the same; and it shall be lawful for any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs to stop and detain such Ship or Vessel at any Port in Great Britain, until the said Duty is paid as aforesaid; and in case Payment thereof shall not be made for the Space of Three Calendar Months after the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel at any Port in Great Britain, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, respectively, or any Three or more of them, to cause such Ship or Vessel, and her Masts, Apparel and Furniture to be sold publickly to the best Bidder, and the Produce thereof to be applied, First, to the Charges that shall arise by such Detention and Sale, next to the Customs and Duties, and the Overplus to be paid to the Proprietor of such Ship, or other Person duly authorized by such Proprietor to receive the same.

Prize Goods may be exported on Payment of the Duties, and entering into Security for Exportation.

X. And it is hereby further enacted, That any Prize Goods which shall be received into any Warehouse in pursuance of this Act, or which are now remaining in any Warehouse in Great Britain, where they have been secured under the King's Locks, by Permission of the Commissioners of the Customs, shall and may, upon Payment of the respective Duties before directed by this Act, be exported at any Time directly from thence, either by the Captors or their Agents, or by any other Person or Persons, without paying any further Duty of Customs or Excise for the same; the Person or Persons exporting the same, giving sufficient Security in Double the Value of the Goods before the Delivery thereof out of the Warehouse, that the same shall be really and truly exported, and not brought back again or relanded in any Part of Great Britain, or landed in the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or the Islands of Faro or Ferro; which Security the Customer or Collector of the Port from whence the same are intended to be exported, is hereby required and authorized to take in His Majesty's Name, and to His Majesty's Use.

Goods on being taken for Home Consumption shall first pay the Remainder of the Duties.

XI. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted, That if any Goods shall be taken out of any Warehouse wherein they are secured as aforesaid, to be used or consumed in Great Britain, the Person or Persons so taking out the same shall first pay up the Remainder of the Duties which would at that Time have been due and payable to His Majesty thereon, if the same had been regularly imported by way of Merchandize into Great Britain; and such Goods shall, in all other Respects, be liable to the same Restrictions and Regulations to which they would have been subject if this Act had not been made.

Vessels commissioned by Letters of Marque, &c. having on board or beyond a certain Quantity of Foreign Spirits, Tea, &c. shall be forfeited.

XII. And whereas the clandestine Importation and Running of Spirits, Tea, and other prohibited Goods into Great Britain may during Hostilities be carried on to a great Degree in large Vessels fitted out and armed as Privateers: And whereas by Means of this illicit Commerce so prejudicial to the publick Revenue and the fair Trader the Powers with whom Great Britain is or may be carrying on Hostilities, may receive Intelligence very detrimental to Great Britain; for the better preventing whereof be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Ship or Vessel whatever which shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall be found at Sea, or in any Port in Great Britain, or at any Distance from the Coast thereof, having on board any Foreign Brandy or other Foreign Spirituous Liquors in any Vessels or Casks which shall not contain Sixty Gallons at the least, except only for the Use of the Seamen then belonging to and on board such Ship or Vessel, not exceeding Two Gallons for each Seaman, or any Tea exceeding the Quantity of Six Pounds Weight, or any other Goods whatever, which are or may be liable to Forfeiture by any Act of Parliament upon being imported into Great Britain, then not only all such Goods, but also the Ship or Vessel on board which they shall be found as aforesaid, with all her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, shall be forfeited and lost, and the same shall be carried and delivered to the Care and Custody of the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at any Port in Great Britain, and the same shall be seized, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of, by such Ways and Rules, and in such Manner and Form, as such Vessels and Goods would be liable to be seized, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of, by any Law in force, if the same had been found within the Limits of any Port of Great Britain, and the Letters of Marque or General Reprisals, or any other Commissions for such Ship or Vessel, shall be null and void; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duties and Drawbacks how to be levied and paid.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Duties are imposed by this Act, or any Drawback allowed, the same shall be raised, levied, collected, applied, recovered, allowed, and paid under such and the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as the Duties imposed and Drawbacks allowed by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, are raised, levied, collected, applied, recovered, allowed, and paid, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all the Clauses, Powers, Directions and Authorities of the said Acts were repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

Continuance of Act.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force during Hostilities; but that the same, or any Part thereof, may be varied, altered, or repealed during the present Session of Parliament.

An Act to amend so much of an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for the further preventing His Majesty's Subjects from trading to the East Indies under foreign Commissions, and for encouraging and further securing the lawful Trade thereto; and for further regulating the Pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, as relates to the ſaid Pilots. [11th August 1803.]

7 Geo. 1. c. 21.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for the further preventing His Majesty's Subjects from trading to the East Indies under foreign Commissions, and for encouraging and further securing the lawful Trade thereto; and for further regulating the Pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the Time being, or his Deputy, with the Assent of the Commissioners of Load Manage and of the Masters and Wardens of the Society or Fellowship or Pilots of the Trinity House of the Cinque Ports, or the major Part of them, at an Assembly, commonly called A Court of Load Manage, to be held by the said Lord Warden, or his Deputy, during the Continuance of an Act of the Third Year of His said late Majesty's Reign therein mentioned, to make such Rules and Orders for the better Government and Regulation of the Pilots residing at Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, as should be thought fit and convenient; and to order and direct a proportionable and sufficient Number of the respective Pilots residing at Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, not less than Eighteen, to ply constantly at Sea at all seasonable Times, to be ready to conduct such Ships and Vessels up the Rivers of Thames and Medway, as should have Occasion for them; and that it should be lawful for the said Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the Time being, or his Deputy, with such Assent as aforesaid, and at such Court of Load Manage as aforesaid, to suspend or deprive any of the said Pilots for breaking such Rules or Orders, or omitting any Thing required by the same, or for acting any way contrary to such Rules or Orders; and if any of the said Pilots so suspended or deprived, during the Time of such Suspension or Deprivation, should take upon him or themselves to conduct any Ship or Vessel by or from Dover, Deal, or the Isle of Thanet, to any Place or Places in or upon the said Rivers of Thames or Medway, such Pilots should be liable to all such Pains and Penalties, to be recovered in like Manner and Form, as are provided by an Act of the Third Year of His said late Majesty's Reign therein mentioned against such Persons as should conduct Ships from and to the Places aforesaid without being first examined and approved as in the same last-mentioned Act is expressed: And whereas the said Provisions in the said recited Act have by subsequent Statutes been continued to the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six: And whereas divers Rules and Orders have been made by the said Lord Warden, or his Deputy, with the Assent of the Commissioners of Load Manage and of the Masters and Wardens of the Society or Fellowship of Pilots of the Trinity House of the Cinque Ports, at an Assembly commonly called A Court of Load Manage, but the same have been found ineffectual, by Reason that the Power of punishing by suspending or depriving any of the said Pilots from breaking such Rules or Orders, is by the said Act given and limited to be exercised by the said Lord Warden, with such Assent as aforesaid, and at such Court of Load Manage as aforesaid, which Court cannot be assembled at such Times and Places as the Occasion of exercising such Power of Punishment as aforesaid requires: And whereas it is expedient that the said Lord Warden, or his Deputy with such Assent as aforesaid, and at such Court of Load Manage assembled as aforesaid, should have Power to make such Rules and Orders for the better Government and Regulation of the said Pilots, on Pain of Suspension or Deprivation of such Pilots as shall offend against the same; and that the Lord Warden for the Time being, or his Deputy, the Lieutenant of Dover Castle, or his Deputy or Deputies, or any Two of the Wardens of the said Society or Fellowship of Pilots residing at Dover or Deal, or any One of such Wardens residing at Ramsgate or Margate, should have Power to hear and determine any Complaint against such Pilots for Breach of such Rules and Orders, and upon Conviction of such Pilots, to inflict such Punishment of Suspension or Deprivation as the said Rules and Orders may direct and the Case may require; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the Time being, or his Deputy, with the Assent of the Commissioners of Load Manage, and of the Masters and Wardens of the Society or Fellowship of Pilots of the Trinity House of the Cinque Ports, or the major Part of them, at an Assembly commonly called A Court of Load Manage, to be held by the said Lord Warden, or his Deputy, shall within Six Weeks after the passing of this Act, proceed to make and shall make all such Rules and Orders for the better Government and Regulation of the Pilots residing at Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, as shall be by them thought fit and convenient, as well relating to the Services of the said Pilots in taking Charge of and conducting and navigating His Majesty's Ships and Vessels, and the Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Employ, and the Ships and Vessels of Merchants, up the said Rivers Thames and Medway, as to the Services of the said Pilots in conducting and navigating His Majesty's Ships and Vessels, and the Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Employ on the Coasts of France, Flanders, and Holland, and to the Baltic Sea, and for effectually securing to His Majesty the Performance of such Services; which Rules and Regulations, when so made, shall be forthwith printed, and Copies thereof delivered to every Member of the said Society, and also to every new Member of the said Society on his Election.

The Warden of the Cinque Ports, or his Deputy, with the Assent of the Commissioners of Load Manage, &c. shall make Rules and Orders for the Regulation of Pilots at Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet.

Rules to be printed.

Proceedings to be had against Pilots refusing to obey such Rules.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Pilot belonging to the said Society or Fellowship of Pilots shall hereafter, contrary to such Rules and Orders as aforesaid, refuse or neglect, upon being duly warned for that Purpose, to take Charge of and to navigate and conduct any Ship or Vessel, or shall break such Rules and Orders in any other Respect, or omit any Thing required by such Rules and Orders to be done by him, then and in either of such Cases, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the Time being, or his Deputy, or the Lieutenant of Dover Castle for the Time being, or his Deputy or Deputies, or to or for any Two of the Wardens of the said Society or Fellowship of Pilots residing at the Place where such Pilot so refusing shall then be, if at Dover or Deal, or any One of such Wardens if at Ramsgate or Margate, on Complaint upon Oath made to him or them (which Oath he and they respectively are hereby authorized to administer), by any Person or Persons concerning the Breach of any such Rule or Order by any such Pilot as aforesaid, to hear and determine the said Complaint, and upon the Oath of One or more credible Witness or Witnesses, Convictions to be returned to the Court of Load Manage.

Witnesses, or Confession of the Party charged by such Complaint, to convict such Party, and to inflict such Punishment, or Suspension or Deprivation as the Rule or Order which shall have been broken may authorize and allow; and the said Lord Warden, or his Deputy, and other Persons hereby authorized to hear and determine such Complaints, shall return such Conviction to the Court of Load Manage to be held next after such Conviction.

Party aggrieved by such Convictions may appeal to the Court of Load Manage.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Party or Parties aggrieved by any such Conviction to appeal against the same to the Court of Load Manage for the said Cinque Ports to be holden next after such Conviction, upon which Appeal it shall and may be lawful to and for such Court to enquire into the Circumstances of the Case, as well upon the Oath of the said Pilot as of any other Persons, which Oath and Oaths the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to administer, and to confirm, mitigate, or quash such Conviction, as the Circumstances of the Case in their Judgement and Discretion may seem to require: Provided nevertheless, that such Conviction, notwithstanding such Appeal, shall, till the Reversal of the same on such Appeal, be in such Force and Effect as if the same had been final and conclusive, and had not been subject to any Appeal whatsoever.

Penalty on Pilots navigating Vessels during their Suspension.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case of such Pilot or Person, during the Time of his Suspension or Deprivation as aforesaid, shall take upon himself directly or indirectly to pilot or navigate, or to be assisting in the piloting or navigating of any Ship or Vessel by or from Dover, Deal, or the Isle of Thanet, to any Place or Places whatsoever in or upon the said Rivers of Thames or Medway, or upon the Coast of France, Flanders or Holland, or to the Baltic Sea, such Pilot shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds, to be sued for and recovered with full Costs of Suit by any Person or Persons, by Suit or Action to be brought in the Court of Admiralty for the Cinque Ports, or otherwise, at the Option of such Person or Persons, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoign, Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance shall be allowed; One Moiety of which said Sum so to be forfeited and recovered shall go to the Informer, and the other Moiety thereof to the Master and Wardens of the said Society for the Time being, to be by them distributed to and among such superannuated Pilots and the Widows of Pilots of the said Society, in like Manner and Proportion as the said Master and Wardens for the Time being shall think fit and appoint, and as heretofore hath been used and practised by the said Society.

II. AND be it further enacted, That if, on the Fifth Day of January, or on the Fifth Day of May, or on the Fifth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and four, or on the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and five respectively, or any or either of the said Days, it shall appear, by Notice in the London Gazette, in Manner directed by an Act, made in the Thirty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for regulating the Allowance of the Drawback and Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, and for permitting the Importation of Sugar and Coffee into the Bahama and Bermuda Islands in Foreign Ships, that the average Prices of Brown or Muscovado Sugar, taken in Manner directed by the said last recited Act, for the preceding Quarter of the Year, shall not have exceeded Seventy Shillings for an Hundred Weight, exclusive of the Duties of Customs paid or payable thereon on the Importation into Great Britain; then and in every such Case the Drawback or Bounty in the Schedule to the recited Act of the last Session of Parliament annexed mentioned as corresponding to or with the Price of which such Notice in the London Gazette shall have been given as aforesaid, shall be paid or allowed, until Notice of any other Average shall be given in the London Gazette on the Saturday immediately preceding any other of such subsequent Days; and such Drawback or Bounty shall be paid or allowed in like Manner in every Respect, and subject and under and according to the like Rules and Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as any Drawbacks and Bounties were paid or allowed before the passing of the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, (except as any such Rules or Regulations are altered by the said Act); and the Whole of the Duty granted by an Act, passed in the Forty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Duties of Customs on Timber, Sugar, Raisins, and Pepper imported into, and on Lead exported from Great Britain, upon Sugar imported into Great Britain by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and warehoused according to Law, and sold at the Sales of the said Company after the Thirtieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and one, shall, upon the Delivery thereof out of the Warehouse for Exportation during the Time of any Drawbacks or Bounties being paid or allowed under this Act in respect of British Plantation Sugar, be wholly drawn back under such Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures as any former Drawbacks are paid and allowed; any Thing in the said Act passed in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

and the Duty granted by 41 G. 3. c. 28. on Sugar imported by the East India Company shall be allowed on Delivery thereof out of Warehouse for Exportation.

[This Section allows a Drawback, on a Duty which was repealed by the 43 Geo. 3. Cap. 68.—This Act has been continued by several subsequent Acts with this Clause in it. It is presumed the Error was not discovered in regard to the East India Sugar, while Provision was making for the Plantation Sugar, and by this Oversight the Provisions for both have been continued, instead of continuing those only for the Plantation Sugar.]

Compensation to be made to those Officers and Persons who may suffer by the Abolition of Fees.

III. And, in order that proper Compensation may be made to any Officer, Clerk, or other Person who may sustain Loss by the Abolition of Fees directed by this Act, be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, in Cases where, on due Examination and Enquiry, it shall be made appear to them that the Salaries or Allowances hereby directed to be paid to Officers, Clerks and other Persons, as a Reward for their Labour in future, in the Execution of the Duty of their respective Offices or Employments, may not amount to so much as it might be just and reasonable to allow to the present Possessors of such Offices or Employments, by way of Compensation for the Loss of Fees formerly received by them respectively, to order such further Allowance as the said Lords Commmissioners shall deem just and reasonable to be paid to any such Officer, Clerk, or other Person; such further Allowance to commence from and after the said Tenth Day of October, and to continue only during the Time any such Officer, Clerk, or other Person, shall hold any such Office or Employment.

An Act to enable the East India Company to raise a further Sum of Money upon Bond, instead of increasing their Capital Stock; and to alter and amend an Act, passed in the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, relative thereto.
[10*th* June 1811.]

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, “ An Act to enable the East India Company to raise Money for further increasing their Capital Stock, and to extend the Provisions now existing respecting the present Stock

37 G. 3. c. 31.

And whereas by an Act made in the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled, "An Act to enable the East India Company to raise Money upon "Bond, instead of increasing their Capital Stock," the said Company are authorized to borrow, upon Bonds to be issued under their Common Seal, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of Two Millions Sterling, over and above such Sum and Sums of Money as the said Company could then lawfully raise on their Bonds, and to apply the Money so to be borrowed and raised, for such Purposes as under and by virtue of the said Act of the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, the Money to be raised by enlarging the Capital Stock of the said Company was applicable; and by the said Act of the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, it is provided, that when the said Company should have raised any Part of the Money which they were thereby authorized to raise by Bond, then and so long as such further Bond Debt, or any Part thereof should continue, all the Money thereafter to be raised by enlarging the Capital Stock of the said United Company, under and by virtue of the said Act passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, should be applied towards the Reduction of the Bond Debt of the said United Company, until it should be reduced to the Sum which the said Company might then lawfully raise by Bond; and in case the said Company should enlarge their Capital Stock, under and by virtue of the said Act passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, before they should have increased their Bond Debt under the Authority of the Act now in recital, that then the Sum which they were thereby empowered to raise on Bond, should be reduced by the Sum of Two hundred Pounds Sterling in respect of every One hundred Pounds Capital Stock so enlarged, and so in Proportion for a greater or less Amount of Capital Stock which should have been created: And whereas a considerable Part of the Debt secured by the Engagement of the said Company in the East Indies, and which was incurred by reason of territorial and political Expences in that Country, has lately been discharged in India, by means of Bills drawn by the Governments of the said Company in the East Indies upon their Court of Directors in London; and thereby it has become necessary for the said Company to provide in this Country a much larger Sum of Money than in the ordinary Course of their Transactions can arise from the Sales of their Goods and the ordinary Receipts and Means of the said Company: And whereas the said United Company have not yet increased their Capital Stock, under and by virtue of the Powers contained in the said first-mentioned Act; and it is expedient that the Power of the said United Company to raise Money upon their Bonds should be enlarged, so that they may be enabled either to raise a further Sum by Bond, or by Increase of their Capital Stock; and therefore, that the Provision in the said last-recited Act, as to the Application of the Money to be raised by increasing the Capital Stock of the said Company, and as to the Reduction of the Power of the said Company to increase their Bond Debt in a certain Case, should be repealed, and that other Provisions should be made in respect thereof: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Company, by and with the Approbation and Consent of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India for the Time being, at any Time or Times hereafter, to borrow upon Bonds to be issued under their Common Seal, any further Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of Two Millions Sterling, over and above such Sum and Sums as the said Company can now lawfully raise on their Bonds, and to apply the Money so to be borrowed and raised for such Purposes, as under and by virtue of the said Act of the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, the Money to be raised by enlarging the Capital Stock of the said Company is applicable; any Thing contained in the said recited Act or any other Act notwithstanding.

47 G.3. c. 41.

Enabling the Company to borrow a further Sum of Money upon Bonds.

Repealing Part of Act 47 G.3. c. 41.

II. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said Act of the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as provides that all the Money to be raised by enlarging the Capital Stock of the said Company as therein mentioned, should be applied towards the Reduction of the Bond Debt of the said United Company, until it should be so reduced to the Sum which the said Company might then lawfully raise by Bond, and as provides that in case the said Company should enlarge their Capital Stock, then that the Sum which they were thereby empowered to raise by Bond should be reduced, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

III.

Bonds issued by the Company under their Common Seal shall be transferrable, &c.

IV. And whereas Bonds issued under the Common Seal of the said United Company, for Money borrowed by them by virtue of the Powers enabling them to borrow Money upon Bond, have usually been entered into, and have been expressed to have been made payable to the Person who for the Time being has been the Treasurer of the said United Company, or his Assigns, and upon his Indorsement thereof, they have been sold and passed from one Person to another, by Delivery of the Possession thereof; and it is expedient that a legal Effect should be given to such Mode of Transfer of the Property in the said Bonds, and the Money secured thereby; be it therefore further enacted, That all Bonds issued, or to be issued, under the Common Seal of the said United Company, by virtue of any Power by which they have been, are, or hereafter may be authorized to borrow Money upon their Bonds, shall be assignable and transferable by Delivery of the Possession thereof; and upon every such Assignment or Transfer, the Money secured by the Bond so assigned or transferred, and due, and to become due thereon, and the Property in such Bond, shall be absolutely vested as well at Law as in Equity, in the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick and Corporate; to whom the same shall be so assigned or transferred, and the Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politick and Corporate, to whom any such Bond shall be so assigned and transferred, and his, her, and their Executors, Administrators, and Successors respectively, shall and may maintain his, her, or their Action for the Principal and Interest secured thereby, and due thereon, or otherwise relating thereto, in like Manner as the Obligee or Obligees named in any such Bond, or his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Successors, may now maintain any Action thereon; and in every such Action the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall recover his, her, or their Debt, Damages, and Costs of Suit; and if any such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or a Verdict be given against him, her, or them, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover his, her, or their Costs against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, and every such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Defendant or Defendants respectively recovering, may sue out Execution for such Debt, Damages, and Costs by Capias, Fieri facias, or Elegit.

Court of Loadmanage to settle the Compensation to be paid to the Upper Book Pilots, by the Lower Book Pilots, for being allowed to take Charge of Ships of greater Draft.

XIII. And whereas the Pilots of the Cinque Ports are divided into Two Classes, called the Upper and Lower Book Pilots; And whereas the permitting Cinque Port Pilots of the Lower Book to take Charge of Ships which heretofore would only be taken by Pilots of the Upper Book, will diminish the Profits of the Upper Book Pilots, and increase the Profits of the Lower Book Pilots; and it is therefore reasonable that Compensation should be made by the Lower Book Pilots to the Persons who are at this Time Upper Book Pilots; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Court of Loadmanage from Time to Time to settle the Amount of the Deductions to be made from the Rates received by Lower Book Pilots for taking Charge of Vessels of greater Draft of Water than they could heretofore by Law take, and in what Proportions, and how and in what Manner, and to whom the same are to be paid, and how the same shall be applied in making Compensation to the present Upper Book Pilots for the Losses they may sustain by such Lower Book Pilots taking Charge of such Vessels as aforesaid; provided that such Deductions so to be fixed as aforesaid, shall from Time to Time be diminished and decreased as the present Sixty-four Upper Book Pilots shall die, be superannuated, or discontinue to act as Pilots; and that such Deductions shall be taken and accepted in lieu of all other Allowances or Contributions whatsoever from the said Lower Book Pilots, except Trinity Money, Clerks Fees, and for Widows.

Pilots shall qualify themselves to conduct, and shall conduct Ships into and out of Ramsgate, Dover, Sandwich, and Margate Harbours, on Penalty for Refusal.

XVIII. And whereas certain Harbours near The Downs have become much frequented as Places of Safety, and Ships and Vessels lying in or sailing through The Downs are oftentimes compelled to run for those Harbours, and it is therefore necessary to make Provision for the Pilotage of such Harbours; be it therefore enacted, That all Pilots whose Licences or Warrants shall authorize them to pilot Ships or Vessels from any Place to the Westward, up to London Bridge, shall qualify themselves, and shall be examined as to their Qualification and Ability to conduct any Ship or Vessel into and out of Ramsgate Harbour, and the Harbours of Dover, Sandwich, and Margate, and shall be obliged to pilot any Ships or Vessels into and out of the said Harbours; and if any such Pilot shall refuse to take Charge of or conduct any Ship or Vessel into or out of the said Harbours, such Pilot shall forfeit all Pay and Reward to which he might otherwise be entitled for the Pilotage of any such Ship or Vessel, and shall be subject to such Fine or other Punishment as shall be established in that Behalf by the Rules and Regulations of the Corporation or Society to which such Pilot shall belong.

Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every licensed Pilot who shall take Charge of and conduct any Ship or Vessel into or out of Ramsgate Harbour or into or out of Dover, Sandwich, or Margate, shall be entitled to and shall receive for such Pilotage at and after the Rate of Five Shillings for every Foot of the Draft of Water of the Ship or Vessel so piloted and conducted by him into or out of any such Harbour, if such Ship or Vessel shall have been so piloted and conducted into or out of the same in moderate Weather, but if under any Circumstances of Distress then such Pilot shall be entitled to such further Sum of Money to be calculated according to the Extent and Circumstances of such Distress, as the Commissioners of Salvage, established under the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports shall, upon Application either of the Pilot, or Owner or Master of any such Ship or Vessel, upon enquiring into all such Circumstances, direct; and such Commissioners shall, and they are hereby required, upon any such Application made, to enquire into all such Circumstances, and to determine the Amount of the Sum so to be paid for the Pilotage of any such Ship or Vessel into the said Harbours respectively: Provided always, that on the Arrival of any Ship or Vessel, and as soon as she shall be moored in any of the said Harbours, it shall be lawful for the Pilot to demand the Pilotage due to him as aforesaid, and to quit the Ship forthwith.

Pilotage may be demanded as soon as the Ship is moored.

An Act to amend so much of an Act of the Thirty-third Year of His present Majesty, as relates to fixing the Limits of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay; and also so much of an Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Year of His present Majesty, as relates to granting Letters of Administration to the Effects of Persons dying intestate within the several Presidencies in the East Indies, to the Registrar of the Ecclesiastical Courts; and to enable the Governor in Council of the said Presidencies to remove Persons not being British Subjects; and to make Provision for the Judges in the East Indies in certain Cases. [14*th* June 1815.]

33 G. 3. c. 52.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, made and passed in the Thirty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for continuing in the East India "Company for a further Term the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with "their exclusive Trade, under certain Limitations; for establishing further Regulations for the "Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; "for appropriating to certain Uses the Revenues and Profits of the said Company; and for making "Provision for the good Order and Government of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay;" it was amongst other Things enacted, that if any Question should arise touching or concerning the true Limits and Extent of the Towns and Factories of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, respectively, or any of them, the same should be enquired into by the Governor General in Council at Fort William, in respect to the Limits and Extent of Calcutta, and by the Governor in Council at Fort Saint George in respect to the Limits and Extent of Madras, and the Governor in Council at Bombay in respect to the Town of Bombay; and that such Limits as the said respective Governments by Order in Council should declare and prescribe to be the Limits of the said Towns and Factories respectively, should be held, deemed, and taken in Law as the true Limits of the same; any Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas by reason of the Increase of the Population of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, it is expedient that the several Governments of Fort William, Fort Saint George and Bombay in the East Indies, should be further empowered, in Manner herein-after mentioned, to extend from Time to Time the Limits of the said several Towns; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Governor General in Council at Fort William in Bengal, from Time to Time, as Circumstances shall in their Judgment require, to extend the Limits of the Town of Calcutta; and to and for the Governor in Council at Fort Saint George, from Time to Time, as Circumstances shall in their Judgment require, to extend the Limits of the Town of Madras; and to and for the Governor and Council at Bombay, from Time to Time, as Circumstances shall in their Judgment require, to extend the Limits of the Town of Bombay; and that such extended Limits as the said respective Governments shall from Time to Time, in and by their respective Orders in Council, or by their Regulations, declare and prescribe as aforesaid to be the Limits of the said Towns respectively, shall, from the Time of publishing such Orders in Council, or Regulations by Proclamation, at the respective Presidencies, be held, deemed, and taken, as and for the true Limits of the same; and from Time to Time, as any Extension shall be made thereof, all Jurisdictions, Powers, and Authorities which by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Charter or Charters, or any Law or Usage, shall or may be bounded or regulated by the Limits of the said Towns respectively, shall thenceforth be bounded and regulated by the Limits of the said Towns respectively, as they shall be declared and prescribed from Time to Time in Manner herein-before mentioned; any Custom, Law, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that no Order in Council or Regulation hereafter to be made, and declaring or prescribing the Limits of any of the said Towns, shall be valid or effectual, until it shall have been sanctioned, or shall have been authorized to be made and passed by the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, with the Approbation of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India.

Limits of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay.

39 & 40 G. 3. c. 79.

II. And whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the "British Territories in India, and for the better Administration of Justice within the same," it was enacted among other Things, that whenever any British Subject should die intestate, within either of the Presidencies of Fort William, Fort Saint George or Bombay, or the Territories subordinate or to become subordinate thereto, and on return of the Citation to be issued from the proper Ecclesiastical Court, no next of Kin or Creditor should appear and make out their Claim to the Administration of the Effects of the Intestate to the Satisfaction of the said Court, it should and might be lawful for the Registrar of such Court, and he was thereby required to apply for, and such Court was thereby directed to grant, Letters ad colligenda or of Administration to such Registrar, in Manner as the said Act set forth: And whereas the said Act doth not expressly provide for the Cases of Executors or Administrators, or Persons entitled to Administration, as herein-after mentioned, not resident within the Jurisdiction of such Courts, who may have appointed Attornies resident or being therein; and it hath been doubted whether the said Courts were not required under the said Act, to grant Letters ad colligenda or of Administration to their Registrars, in preference to Attornies so appointed; and it is fit that such Doubts be removed; be it therefore enacted and declared, That when the Executor or Administrator lawfully appointed, or the Person entitled to Administration as next of Kin or residuary Legatee with the Will annexed, of any Person deceased, whose Effects shall be subject to the Jurisdiction of any of the said Courts in respect to the granting of Administration, not being resident within the Jurisdiction of such Court, shall have appointed or shall hereafter appoint, either by Power of Attorney under Seal, or by any other sufficient Authority, to be shewn to the Satisfaction of the said Court, any Person or Persons resident or being within such Jurisdiction to act for such Executor or Administrator, or Person entitled to Administration as aforesaid, in collecting or administering in any Manner the Effects of the Deceased, the Person or Persons so appointed shall be entitled to obtain Letters ad colligenda or of Administration, either General or Special, as the Tenor of such Authority and the Nature of the Case may require, preferably to the Registrar of such Court, and all other Persons to whom such Executor or Administrator, or Persons entitled as aforesaid, would have had a preferable Claim, if personally resident within the Jurisdiction of the said Court.

Letters of Administration to Attornies or Executors.

Making void Letters of Administration to Registrar.

III. And be it further enacted, That where any such Letters ad colligenda or of Administration shall have been granted to the Registrar of such Court, and Application shall be afterwards made by any Person or Persons so appointed as aforesaid for the Revocation thereof, in order to grant other Letters to such Person or Persons, the Letters so granted to such Registrar shall be revoked, unless it shall appear to the said Court that there has been unreasonable Delay, either in the Transmission of the Authority under which such Application is made, or in making such Application: Provided always, that when any Letters ad colligenda or of Administration shall have been actually granted to the Registrar of any such Court by virtue of the Act herein-before recited, and shall be revoked on the Application of such Attorney or Attornies as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Court, if they shall think fit, to direct that the Whole or Part of any Commission, in respect to the Administration of Assets which may arise or become due by virtue of any reasonable Custom, obtaining within the Jurisdiction of such Court, shall be allowed to such Registrar out of any Assets which may have come to his Hands, regard being had to the Trouble and Responsibility actually incurred, and to the Service rendered by the said Registrar in the Collection of such Assets: Provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to render necessary the taking out of Letters ad colligenda or of Administration from any of the Courts aforesaid, by any such Attorney or Attornies, otherwise than it would have been if this Act had not been made; and that no Claim or Right to any such Commission in respect of Administration of Effects as aforesaid, shall be deemed to accrue to any such Attorney or Attornies by reason of Letters ad colligenda or Administration, taken out by him or them in virtue of such Authority as aforesaid, nor any other or further Commission than would have been payable to him or them as Agents, either according to the usual and reasonable Rates of such an Agency, or by special Agreement.

Not to affect the Rights of Persons entitled to Probates of Wills of Administration of Effects of Persons who shall have died before the passing of this Act, &c.

IV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall not, nor shall any thing herein contained, in anywise prejudice or affect the Rights, Claims, Actions, Suits, or Appeals of any Person or Persons being entitled to or claiming to be entitled, either as Principal or Principals, Attorney or Attornies, to the Probate or Probates of any Will or Wills, Codicil or Codicils, or Letters ad colligenda or of Administration of the Goods, Chattels, and Effects of any Person or Persons who shall have died before the passing of this Act; nor the Rights, Claims, Actions, Suits, or Appeals of any Person or Persons claiming or suing, or to claim or sue for the Recall or Repeal of any Letters ad colligenda or of Administration, granted of the Goods, Chattels, or Effects of any Person or Persons who shall have died before the passing of this Act, which may have been or shall be granted to any such Registrar as herein-before mentioned; nor to the Rights, Claims, Actions, Suits, or Appeals of any Person or Persons claiming or to claim as Executors, Legatees, or next of Kin of any Person or Persons who shall have died before the passing of this Act, in any way relating to the Goods, Chattels, Property, Estate, or Effects of such deceased Person or Persons, or to the Transactions, Acts, Deeds, Neglects, Defaults, Intermeddlings, or Accounts of any such Registrar relating to any such Goods, Chattles, Property, Estate or Effects, or under or by Pretence of any Letters ad colligenda or of Administration, which may have been granted to him; nor in any way to entitle any such Registrar to any Commission, Compensation, or Allowance in respect of any Thing done or to be done by him in relation to the Goods, Chattels, Debts, Credits, Estate, or Effects of any Person or Persons who shall have died before the passing of this Act, which he would not have been entitled to if this Act had not been passed; but every Person being entitled to or claiming any such Probate or Probates, Letters ad colligenda or of Administration, or to have any such Letters ad colligenda or of Administration, recalled or repealed, or having or being entitled to or claiming or to claim any such Cause or Causes of Action, Suit, or Appeal, shall be entitled thereto, and all Benefit and Advantage thereof, and to prosecute and carry on the same, in the same Manner, as he, she, or they would have been entitled if this Act had not been passed.

Registrar when appointed Administrator, to enter in a Book separate Accounts.

V. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which the Registrar of any of the said Courts shall be appointed Administrator under the aforesaid Act, besides filing an Inventory and Account Current according to the Tenor of the Administration Bond and the usual Course of the Ecclesiastical Court, he shall enter into a Book, to be kept by him for that Purpose, separate and distinct Accounts of each Estate, and of all such Sums of Money, Bonds, and other Securities for Money, Goods, Effects and Things as shall come to his Hands, or to the Hands of any Persons employed by him or in Trust for him by virtue of any Letters ad colligenda or of Administration granted to him under the Authority of the said Act, and likewise of all Payments made by him for or on Account of the said Estates, and of all Debts due by or to the same, specifying the Dates of such Receipts and Payments respectively; which said Book shall be kept in the Registrar's Office, and shall be open for the Inspection of all such Persons, Practitioners in the said Courts or others, as may have Occasion to inspect the same, at Office Hours, paying such reasonable Fee as may be fixed therefore by the said Courts, and no more; and the said Registrars shall twice in every Year, that is, on the First Day of March and on the Twenty-second Day of October, or on the first Day after those Days on which their respective Courts shall be sitting, exhibit and deliver in open Court, a true and perfect Schedule of all Sums of Money, Bonds, or other Securities, received on Account of each Estate remaining under their Charge, together with the Payments made thereout, and the Balances; and also of all Administrations whereof the Balances shall have been paid over to the Persons entitled to the same, since the Period of exhibiting the last Schedule, specifying the Amount of such Balances, and the Persons to whom paid; which Schedules shall be filed of Record in the said Courts, and shall within Fourteen Days afterwards be published in the Gazettes of the Presidencies within which such Courts are respectively situated, by the said Registrar, who shall likewise cause Copies thereof, in triplicate, to be delivered to the Chief Secretary at such Presidency, and the same shall be transmitted by the respective Governments at such Presidencies to the Court of Directors of the East India Company, who, upon the Receipt thereof, shall cause the same to be published in the London Gazette.

V. Provided also, That nothing in the Act contained shall be construed in any Manner to affect the Privileges of any Ship or Vessel already registered as British-built, or to affect the Right of any Ship or Vessel now built or building to Registry as British-built.

Lascars and Natives of India not to be British Mariners within the meaning of 34 G. 3. c. 68.

VI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, that no Asiatic Sailors, Lascars, or Natives of any of the Territories, Countries, Islands, or Places within the Limits of the Charter of the East India Company, although born in Territories, Countries, Islands or Places under the Government of His Majesty, or of the East India Company, shall at at Time be deemed or taken to be British Sailors, Seamen, or Mariners, within the Intent and Meaning of the said recited Act of the Thirty-fourth Year aforesaid, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Navigation of British Ships by Subjects of His Majesty, for the Purpose of entitling any Ship or Vessel to be deemed to be a British Ship navigated according to Law, and to have the Privileges and Advantages of British Ships, having the Master and Three-fourths of the Mariners British Subjects; any Thing in the said recited Act of the Thirty-fourth Year aforesaid, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or Law or Laws, to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that no Ship or Vessel belonging to any Port within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, or usually navigated by such Asiatic Sailors, Lascars, or Natives aforesaid, as Mariners, shall, while carrying on Trade to and from India to the United Kingdom, forfeit any Privileges or Advantages of a British-built Ship, to which she may be by Law entitled, by reason of having any Proportion of such Mariners, without the due Proportion of British Mariners, until the Expiration of Twelve Months of continued Peace after the Conclusion of the present War: Provided also that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation, upon or after the Commencement of any Hostilities, to permit all Merchant Ships, or any other Trading Vessels, and all Privateers, to be manned wholly, or in any such Proportions as shall be specified in any such Proclamation, with such Asiatic Sailors, Lascars, or Natives aforesaid, for and during such Periods as shall be specified in any such Proclamation as aforesaid.

In Cases where, in India, a sufficient Number of British Seamen cannot be obtained, Governors may license the Ship to sail for Europe.

VIII. And whereas it may not always be possible to procure the due Proportion of British Seamen, at Ports in India, for Vessels sailing from India; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any of the Governments of the East India Company in India, or for any Governor or Lieutenant-Governor of any Colony, Territory, or Island, belonging to His Majesty, within the Limits of the said Charter, and they and he are hereby required, on Application made by the Owner or Commander of any Ship or Vessel, and after having ascertained by due enquiry, that a sufficient Number of British Seamen cannot be procured for the Crew of any Ship or Vessel sailing from India, within Ten Days from such Application to certify the same, and license such Ship or Vessel to sail with a less Proportion of British Seamen than required by Law; and every such Ship, having on board such License, shall be deemed to be navigated according to Law, notwithstanding such Deficiency of British Seamen, until her Arrival at the Port of her Destination in the United Kingdom; but shall, on the Voyage back from the United Kingdom, have the full and proper Proportion of Seven British Seamen to every One hundred Tons.

Act not to require British Seamen on board Vessels employed in Trade between Port and Port.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament contained, shall extend or be construed to extend to require any Number of British Seamen to be on board, as Part of the Crew or Mariners of any Ship or Vessel employed in Trade only between Ports and Places within the Limits of the Charter of the said Company, including the Cape of Good Hope; or to prevent any such Ship or Vessel, while so employed, being manned and navigated wholly or in any Proportion as to Asiatic Sailors, or Lascars, or Natives of any Territories, Countries, Islands or Places, within the Limits of the said Company.

Provision in case of Vessels driven by Stress of Weather into Saint Helena.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Ship or Vessel shall happen, by Stress of Weather, Peril of the Sea, or other inevitable Accident, or other urgent Necessity, to be driven or forced to the said Island, and from such Cause to touch thereat, and the Master or other Person having the Command of such Ship or Vessel shall forthwith give Notice thereof, and of the Cause thereof, to the Governor, or in his Absence to the Deputy Governor of the said Island for the Time being, or to the Commander of His Majesty's Naval or Military Forces for the Time being, or one of them; and shall, during the Time that such Ship or Vessel shall be permitted to remain at the said Island, in all Things conform to the Directions and Orders of the said Governor, or in his Absence of the said Deputy Governor for the Time being; and the said Ship or Vessel shall quit the said Island, and depart therefrom, with all the Crew and Passengers of and belonging to the said Ship or Vessel, as and when the said Governor, or in his Absence the Deputy Governor for the Time being, or the Commander of His Majesty's Naval and Military Forces at the said Island for the Time being, or either of them, shall direct and require; such Ship or Vessel shall not be subject to Forfeiture, nor shall the Owners or Master or Crew thereof, or any Person or Persons on board the same, who shall so conform to such Directions and Orders as aforesaid, be liable to any of the Pains, Penalties, or Punishments herein-before mentioned: Provided nevertheless, that the Proof of such Ship or Vessel having been driven or forced to repair to and touch at the said Island, by Stress of Weather, Peril of the Sea, or other inevitable Accident or urgent Necessity, and of having quitted and departed from the said Island as herein-before mentioned, shall lie upon the Party claiming such Exemption from the Pains, Penalties, and Punishments aforesaid; any Thing in this Act or any other Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Indemnifying Persons acting in detaining Buonaparté in Custody.

VI. And whereas in consequence of Napoleon Buonaparté having been detained and kept in Custody in the Island of Saint Helena, and in order to the safely and securely detaining and keeping him in such Custody, it may have happened that the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or the Governor of the said Island for the Time being, or the Commander of His Majesty's Naval or Military Forces respectively, or other Officers and Persons acting or who have acted in their Aid and Assistance, or under their Advice, Orders, or Commands, may from the Urgency of the Occasion have given Orders, done Acts, or used Means for the Purpose, which may not be strictly justified by Law; and in such Case it is highly fit that they should be justified and indemnified by Act of Parliament for the same; be it therefore enacted, That the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, and the Governor of the said Island of Saint Helena for the Time being, and the Commander or Commanders of His Majesty's Naval or Military Forces for the Time being, and all and every Officer and Officers, Person and Persons, who have acted in their Aid or Assistance, or under their respective Advice, Orders, and Commands, shall be and they are hereby indemnified for the same.

General Issue.

ment, Prosecution, or Proceeding now commenced or which shall or may hereafter be prosecuted and commenced, against any of the said Commissioners, Governor or Governors, Commanders, Officers, or Person or Persons as aforesaid, for or by reason of any such Advice, Order, or Command, or for or by reason of any Act, Matter, or Thing, done in such Aid and Assistance, or under such Advice, Order, or Command respectively, he, she, or they may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence.

Not to extend to prejudice the Right of the East India Company to trade with Saint Helena.

VIII. Provided always, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend to restrain or prejudice the Trade or Right of Trade or Navigation of the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, to the said Island of Saint Helena, in Ships of and belonging to or chartered by the said Company, and duly licensed by them for that Purpose, or to prejudice or infringe the Rights of the said Company to and over the said Island and the Inhabitants thereof, except as is herein-before specially enacted and contained.

Recites that, the "General Society" were incorporated by charter of the 3d September in the tenth year of King William III. and the "English Company" by charter of the 5th September in the same year: the "Old Company" having paid their proportion to the fund of 2,000,000*l.* were to enjoy the same privileges with the "New Company" for seven years, after which the whole trade to be carried on by the "New Company." Recites the claim of the Company to a perpetuity in the trade, and their willingness to have all doubts thereon removed. To pay the public 1,000,000*l.* (for which an annuity to be granted of 30,000*l.*) repayable on the same terms as the 3,200,000*l.* formerly advanced. Sect. 2 a 7. Mem.—In the preamble of sect. 2. it is stated that for 1,000,000*l.* advanced, the Company were to purchase an annuity of 30,000*l.* and to have the exclusive term continued for 14 years, which, with three years notice, would extend their exclusive privileges to Lady Day 1783, there does not appear any express enactment in the Act to this effect. Sect. 13. (afterwards repealed by 21 Geo. 3. cap. 65.) declares that on three years notice after Lady Day 1780, on re-payment, &c. the exclusive trade is to cease. There is no doubt it was the intention to continue the term for that period, and as taking 14 years from 1780 leaves the year 1766 as the expiration of the former period to which the exclusive trade extended, it would appear that, instead of 1736, the period stated in the Act of the 3 Geo. 2. cap. 14. it should have been 1766, this seems confirmed in some measure by a note in the margin of the Statutes at large, edition 1758, vol. 4. page 690, which states, that in the former edition it is 1766. May borrow under their Seal 1,000,000*l.* in addition. Sect. 8. Notices for re-payment of sums advanced the expiration of the exclusive trade, and the benefit of former Charters, &c. Recites that, the "General Society" were incorporated by charter of the 3d September in the tenth year of King William III. and the "English Company" by charter of the 5th September in the same year: the "Old Company" having paid their proportion to the fund of 2,000,000*l.* were to enjoy the same privileges with the "New Company" for seven years, after which the whole trade to be carried on by the "New Company." Recites the claim of the Company to a perpetuity in the trade, and their willingness to have all doubts thereon removed. To pay the public 1,000,000*l.* (for which an annuity to be granted of 30,000*l.*) repayable on the same terms as the 3,200,000*l.* formerly advanced. Sect. 2 a 7. Mem.—In the preamble of sect. 2. it is stated that for 1,000,000*l.* advanced, the Company were to purchase an annuity of 30,000*l.* and to have the exclusive term continued for 14 years, which, with three years notice, would extend their exclusive privileges to Lady Day 1783, there does not appear any express enactment in the Act to this effect. Sect. 13. (afterwards repealed by 21 Geo. 3. cap. 65.) declares that on three years notice after Lady Day 1780, on re-payment, &c. the exclusive trade is to cease. There is no doubt it was the intention to continue the term for that period, and as taking 14 years from 1780 leaves the year 1766 as the expiration of the former period to which the exclusive trade extended, it would appear that, instead of 1736, the period stated in the Act of the 3 Geo. 2. cap. 14. it should have been 1766, this seems confirmed in some measure by a note in the margin of the Statutes at large, edition 1758, vol. 4. page 690, which states, that in the former edition it is 1766. May borrow under their Seal 1,000,000*l.* in addition. Sect. 8. Notices for re-payment of sums advanced the expiration of the exclusive trade, and the benefit of former Charters, &c. Recites, that the Company applied to Parliament for an aid of 1,500,000*l.* but rejected the terms on which the House of Commons offered them relief, stating their determination, that rather than accept of such terms they would abide by the laws of their country; and that as it would be injurious to the public not to grant them relief, or to leave it in the power of the Court of Proprietors to withhold their assent to the acceptance of such assistance; it was therefore enacted that 1,400,000*l.* be granted in Exchequer Bills, for the relief of the Company. Sect. 1. To be applied by the Treasury as follows. 1st. In payment of all Customs due. 2d. In payment of sums due for Tea duties in arrear. 3d. In payment of Tea duties to 5th July 1772. 4th.
